THE BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

Conclusion of Mr. Evarts' Speech.

NEW YORK, May 28, 1875.

The Brooklyn City Court room was again inordinately crowded this morning. Judge Neilson requested silence on the part of the people, and then Mr. Evarts continued his address. He said he was asking the jury's attention to what the law requires as a legal certainty on the question of this criminality having an influence on the happiness of others. There were some relations between Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Tilton which were part of the case. These relations partook of the nature of those which would exist between a clergyman and his parishoners The number of visits during many years of confessed intimacy were limited to but one in five or six weeks. In regard to any visits of Mrs. Tilton's to Mr. Beecher, there was no evidence of any at all. To say, however, that the presence of a married woman at a clergyman's house in the day time would be evidence of criminality, would shock not only any sense of decency, but also of fairness. It is for the jury and counsel to protect men in the lower walks of life like themselves from trumped up charges like this. Calumny took its effect in a greater degree on those against whom it was aimed. They were the same as the distinguished friends and instruments of Cataline, described about two thousand years ago, by as learned an advocate in better language than the counsel could describe them. People did not need to eat the whole loaf of bread to know that it was sour, but some people would eat on, thinking that the sourness had not struck in. But if the loaf of sour bread was taken into the stomach, people would find how indigestible it was. Envy was a counter passion of love in every sense. It flaunts itself because of the success of others; it finds its occupation and work in debasement of this prosperity.

Tilton's Grey Hairs.

The counsel discussed the character of the cross-examination, and dwelt on Tilton's denial of his having grey hairs in his head at a certain time, when he had forgotten having written a letter before that period about his grey hairs being brought down in sorrow to the grave. He had forgotten, said counsel, saying that even the hairs of the most worthless head were all numbered.

Counsel also touched on the testimony of Martin in relation to the piazza of Mrs. Ovington's house, and said there were instances of cases where but here was an instance where a man dashed his brains out against a brick wall which was not there. There was an old Latin motto: "Falsis in uno, falsis in omnibus." Satisfy yourself that a man was false in one thing, and you could satisfy yourself that he was false in all.

Mr. Evarts then read from Tilton's testimony with reference to Bowen telling him in June, 1862, that Beecher had been guilty of acts of adultery begun in Indianapolis and continued since. If Tilton believed Bowen, said counsel, the jury would see that Beecher and Mrs. Tilton were Under Pretty Sharp Observation.

In the winter of 1870, Beecher drove Mrs. Tilton out behind a team of horses, and calling for her again, Tilton was there and urged his wife to go driving with Beecher, and this was the second year after the offence alleged had been committed.

Tilton, said counsel, knew for years that Beecher was a dangerous man to visit families of pure women, and yet he encouraged Beecher to visit his family and wife, and invited, nay, almost forced him to do so, and there did not enter one thought of fear into Theodore Tilton's heart.

A recess was here taken.

After the recess Mr. Evarts continued his address. He said that a witness was finally brought, a witness of intelligence and truthfulness, who had gone in and out of Tilton's family for a long series of years, the old family servant, half friend as well as servant, Katie McDonald. She was, no doubt, attached to Mrs. Tilton, but she belonged to Tilton's side of the family, and was devoted to Tilton himself. Yet called for another purpose, not one fact was produced by her to show undue familiarity between Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Tilton during a long period of her observation. However tainted the plaintiff and his theory might be, he should consider all the evidence offered in their support with the same fairness and candor with which he would wish for his own to be treated. But consideration of the value of the evidence involved the character of the witness, and this must be discovered.

Tilton's Portrait of His Home.

As portrayed by Tilton, his household was an ideal home, without an element to disturb its happiness until it was entered by the seducer. But owing to some business difficulties with Mr. Bowen, with which Mr. Beecher was disconnected, he deemed it necessary to keep up a connection with Mr. Beecher, lest in a controversy between Mr. Bowen and Mr. Beecher the good name of his own wife and children should be impaired. Mr. Tilton was not afraid that his wife would publish her shame, or that Mr. Beecher would, but he was afraid that it would come out in some way, and therefore whispered insinuations to a select circle of friends as the best method of keeping it secret.

Mr. Evarts continued in a vein of sarcasm to sketch the ponderous and elaborate machinery which Tilton and Moulton found it necessary to employ in order to keep this secret, while Mr. Beecher was leading a life which was one of circumstantial confession.

Tilton Reverses His Policy.

This continued, he said, until he (Tilton) found it necessary to reverse his policy, and discovered that it was his duty to sacrifice his wife and children that he might crush Mr. Beecher. It was thought that the boldness, the heinousness, the circumstantiality of this charge, supported by select bits of evidence and scraps of Beecher's handwriting, as prepared by Moulton in his published statement, under the guidance of an adviser thought to be wise, would be death to Beecher. Out of all this heat was generated, as the viper came out of the fire and fastened upon the arm of the Apostle Paul. When the companions of the Apostle saw this, and saw him shake the reptile off into the flame, they looked to see him swell up with poison or fall down suddenly, thinking him to be a murderer upon whom vengeance had been sent. When they saw that he suffered no harm their rude faith took a new direction and they thought he was a God. When the viper fastened himself upon Mr. Beecher he suffered a terrible ordeal, but those who had known his life for twenty-five years did not like to see him swell up with passion or fall down suddenly, for they knew he was not a murderer.

Mr. Evarts here rested, as it was the hour for adjournment. The Court then adjourned until Tuesday morning next, Monday (Decoration Day) being a legal holiday.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1875.

Retirement of Greenbacks.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day directed the retirement of $987,760 from the currency balance of the Treasury, the same being eighty per cent. of additional circulation issued to banks during the present month. Until further directions, the amount of United States notes outstanding to be used as a circulating medium shall not exceed $377,064,055.

Abolition of Portuguese Slavery

Information has been received at the Department of State of the passage, by acclamation, on the 22d of March last, of an act by the Cortes of the kingdom of Portugal granting unconditional freedom to the remaining Portuguese slaves, known as apprentices or freedmen. The act provides that one year after promulgation, the system of apprenticeship under the decree of February, 1869, shall cease, and all persons apprenticed by its provisions are declared free. The act also provides for the manner in which freedmen who have no trade or business, or who cannot read or write, may be subjected to tutelage by the civil authorities, but that this right of tutelage shall cease on the 28th of April, 1878. The labor of those under tutelage is declared free, and they are to be at liberty to make their own contracts, subject to revision of the proper authorities.

The following reports were then offered: Second Annual Report of the Board of Ministers Relief; this Board held regularly, quarterly meeting during the year. The sum of $2,184.61 has been received during the year; an act of corporation has been obtained; Rev. Wm. Arnot offered his resignation which was accepted, and Mr. Thos. Stenson elected to fill the place. Report of the Board of Publication; the success of this board has been great, many new and excellent works have been published; 51,000 books have been issued during the year; the capital stock has increased over last year $4,459; there is yet an indebtedness of Pastors and church of over $12,000. The term of service of Rev. W. J. Robinson, and Messrs. Thos. McCance, Wm. M. Gormly expired at this meeting.

The Board of Education reported that 28 students received aid during the year. Funds received during the year $10,457.38. Paid to beneficiaries $5,225.84.

Report of the Freedmen's Mission. Rev. J. P. Wright was elected Missionary to labor at Nashville, Tenn. On the 15th of September the school was opened under the supervision of Mr. Wright, with the Misses Jennie McCahon and Lizzie Wright as teachers. The attendance on public worship was encouraging. At the July meeting H. J. Murdock was elected Treasurer. Total receipts during the year $6,109.62. Total in Treasury $7,616.21. The Board ask $15,000 to enable them to erect a building for a Normal school.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was next in order. The receipts for the year were $16,858.57. The progress of the Board has been great. Many new mission stations have been established. The total amount of loan fund is $37,585.73. The term of office of the Revs. R. B. Ewing, Thos. H. Hanna, and Mr. Samuel Dyer expires. Mr. McCague has resigned.

The Rev. J. G. Carson, Chairman of Board of Narrative and State of Religion. The report was gotten up with unusual care, and was highly creditable to the gentleman who offered it. The following named ministers have died during the year: John Master, D. D., Moses Arnot, G. M. Hall, Joseph H. Pressley, D. D., Michael Harshaw, David Currie, G. C. Brown, D. U. French, D. D., J. M. Donaldson, Wm. R. Erskine, J. H. Peacock, J. A. Richey, A. P. Taggart and Richard Gailey—"fourteen in all, good men and true." Fifteen have been ordained to the office of the Gospel ministry, and twenty-six have been sent out as probationers. There have been twenty-six releases and forty five installations. Eleven new congregation have been organized and the same number of mission stations established. The additions are in excess of the decrease over eleven hundred. Four hundred adults have been baptized. There has never been a time when unity and brotherly love more prevailed. Few cases of discipline have been reported. The great and important doctrines of grace are faithfully preached from the pulpits.

From nearly every Presbytery cheery reports come of reviving times. Special and continuous services are becoming very common. The Sabbath schools are in a flourishing state and have increased in interest. There has been a gratifying improvement in the temperance work, which is mainly owing to the "woman's movement." It is suggested that a day of fasting and prayer be authorized on this behalf. The liberality of the churches is commended, but it is hoped that the grace of liberality will be still more acted upon. Nearly all the Presbyteries have still the old plan of pew rents. A few have adopted the voluntary plan. The committee suggested no plan, but hoped that the assembly would have all the Presbyteries adopt the same system. The Board of Foreign Missions reported that the whole amount appropriated by the last assembly was $73,449. Balance in Treasury, May 1st, $669.54. Amount received during the year was $67,467.30. Mr. Wm. Getty, of Philadelphia, has been elected Treasurer. There are four Missions, Syria, India, Egypt, China. 33 stations, 15 foreign and 3 native missionaries, 21 female missions, 92 teachers and 785 communicants. Increase during the year, 212; scholars in school, 2,591; contributions of native converts in Egypt, $3,106. During the year the following new Missionaries have been sent out: Rev. T. L. Scott and wife and Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon sailed for India, and Miss Maggie G. Lockhart for Egypt; also Revs. John Griffin and J. R. Alexander were sent to Egypt. Dr. Lansing and wife has again been sent to Cairo. Rev. James Barr will sail soon for India. Dr. Barnett will be able to return to his labors soon, owing to the condition of his family. The Rev. Andrew Gordon has offered himself for the Mission in India.

The committee of the "Board of Ministerial Relief" reported and presented a charter for adoption.

The Treasurer's reports of the several boards of the church were then submitted.

Next came the report of the Committee of Sustentation, by which it was proposed that the minimum sum at first shall be $800; soon to be increased.

Next came the report of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, which was presented by the Chairman, the Rev. W. W. Barr. Denominational notes and papers have been prepared during the year and published in the "Repository and Worker."

A long correspondence was read from the missionaries in Egypt in reference to certain misunderstandings between them and the Board of Foreign Missions. The matter was referred to Committee of Foreign Board.

The Presbytery of Keokuk sent a memorial that a weekly Church paper be established under the care of the Assembly.

A memorial was read from the Presbytery of Des Moines, that a change be made in Chapt. 7, article 1, section 4 of Book of Discipline. The request was made that woman might be eligible to the office of Deacon. Referred to Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A memorial from Mrs. Hanna requesting a Womans' Foreign Mission Board to be organized was referred to a special committee.

The report of the Committee of Confederation was read by Dr. D. R. Kerr. There was great unanimity in the Conference held in New York. A series of resolutions were agreed to by that meeting, by which all branches of the Presbyterian family might demonstrate their true unity and make combined efforts for the wants of great cities and in foreign lands.

Adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Assembly met at 2 o'clock. Opened with prayer by Dr. Barnett. Minutes of last session read and approved.

A memorial was presented by the Presbytery of Troy, asking to be transferred to the Presbytery of Mansfield. Referred to the Appropriate Committee.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Butler, requesting this Assembly to congratulate the Presbyterian Church of Ireland on their position with respect to instrumental music and Psalmody. Referred to committee.

On motion Assembly adjourned with prayer, in order that the several committees might be permitted to attend to their duties. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in devotional exercises.

EVENING SESSION.

Assembly met and was constituted with prayer by Rev. W. J. Reed, D. D. Minutes of previous session read and approved. After devotional exercises the Assembly entered into an extra Judicial Conference on the subject of Foreign Missions.

The Rev. John B. Dales, D. D., of Philadelphia, corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, was the first speaker. He believed that never as a church were there more reasons for gratitude and thanksgiving than at present. We have had to make fewer calls this year than ever before, and our Treasury has thousands of dollars more than ever before. While other denominations are much in debt we are financially prosperous. We have never had as many conversions before as in this year. The spirit of the Lord has been at work in a great measure. Another grand feature of our recent work is the noble effort being made by the women of the church: both at home and their noble and self-sacrificing work in heathen lands. Eight missions have been added to the work this year. A sister church has come forward and united their work with ours, referring to the Associate Church of the South. The address was one of great power and pathos and as touching incidents of foreign toil and self-sacrifice were mentioned the speaker was moved to tears and the audience were deeply melted.

The Rev. Jas. S. Barr, of the Indian mission, was the next speaker. Said he: In a few months I bid adieu to my dear native land, for the land of my love and my adoption. As he left that land they pleaded that he would return. He promised to do so. He related a tender story of an old man led to Jesus during his work. He was about to return, and should perhaps never meet them again, but he was strong in the glorious hope that the golden dawn of India's regeneration was near. Hoping and trusting that our beloved church will do their duty towards India, asking your sympathy and your prayers, I bid a fond and long farewell.

After singing a part of the 102d Psalm, the Rev. Mr. Gordon, of the Indian mission, made a brief address. He gave a touching account of his experience in mission work. There are four millions under our care. The country is now wonderfully opened up for the gospel by the influence of the English. Governor General Laurence said that the missionaries were doing more for India than the efforts of the British Government. The speaker closed as follows: "I offered myself to the last Assembly to send me back to India, but you refused owing to my delicate health, but my heart is there, and offer myself again to-night. Let me go back to my loved India." As the speaker closed with these noble words, a thrill of feeling ran through the large assembly, and at length burst out in involuntary applause.

The closing address was made by Dr. Barnet, of the Egyptian mission. He referred to the recent misunderstandings regarding the work, but believed that it would revert for good in the future.

On motion the Assembly adjourned, with prayer by Rev. Dr. Cooper, of Allegheny.

Third Day's Proceedings.

MORNING SESSION.

OXFORD, Ohio, May 28, 1875.

Assembly met and was constituted with prayer by the Moderator. Roll called and minutes of previous session read.

The following Committee on Seminary were nominated: Dr. D. A. Wallace, D. D., L. L. D.; John T. Brownlee, D. S. Kennedy, R. G. Campbell, James Ingles, Thos. Brown, F. M. Spencer.

The committee appointed by last Assembly to the Associate Synod of the South reported that they were received in a very cordial manner and that Rev. Dr. Sloane had been appointed as a delegate to this Assembly.

A dispatch was received from the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Richmond, Ind., conveying fraternal salutions, and asking the Assembly to read 1 Thess., 13 chapt. 12-13 verses.

The Presbytery of Tennessee requested that the General Assembly would establish a Normal school at Knoxville, Tenn., and that a minister be appointed and a boarding house established. Referred to Committee on Freedmen.

An invitation was read from the faculty of Wooster University, requesting the Assembly to visit the institution.

The committee on devotional exercises reported that the last half hour of each morning session be spent in devotional exercises.

On motion the Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of the delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, Rev. Dr. Sloane. He said it was with feelings of deep emotion that he appeared before them. You honored us eversomuch by sending your Moderator and Secretary of one of your boards; your first delegates were the great and good Dr. Pressly and Low, the opposer of union then. But time, the great healer, has wrought wonders; breaches are healed. Even I, a South Carolinian to the marrow-bone, am here this morning, coming in good faith to promote the peace and unity of the Kingdom of Christ. We are one, having the same standards and history. We respect you for your zeal, for your missionary efforts. We desire to dwell under the same vine and fig tree. Accept our blessing, which is brought to you this morning. We have given you one token of our good will by giving you our dear mission work. We greet you in the name of the Erskines and Covenanters, in the name of the Westminster Assembly of those who stood up for Christ's Crown and Covenant. But we differ somewhat. If you could expunge what seems of a proscriptive kind we might be brought nearer together. If old obsolete issues were brought up we might not be much changed. But why bring them up? Let them be a thing of the past. Another difficulty is the appearance of fiery paragraphs which creep into our religious papers. But we do not yet know each other. We have stood aloof. Let there be a greater exchange of opinion among us. Let your church papers circulate amongst us. We have introduced your new version of the Psalms. We invite you to come and live among us, for we have as fair a clime as is beneath the sun. Come and see the land of the Palmetto, of the Orange and of song. Come and invest in our rich soil. Come help us in our great work of missions. And when we have lived and labored amongst each other, then we will love each other. Interests may conflict, but if we love each other and Jesus that can never conflict. Seventeen years ago I was in Pittsburgh at the Union of the Churches, from which came your General Assembly, the guest of the great and good Dr. Pressley. Would God that we had been a party to the transaction. Sad scenes have transpired since, but could I witness such another scene between our beloved Synod and you, I could say, "Now let thy servant depart in peace." Then would our Church "be fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners."

Permit me, Mr. Moderator, to place a copy of our minutes on your table. It will afford my Synod great pleasure to be honored by you sending a delegate to a Synod which meets at Due West, South Carolina. Fathers and Brethren, goodby. The address was one of great eloquence and power, and moved many to tears.

The Moderator responded on behalf of the Assembly. The matters between your body and ours will come before a committee, and I shall not say much. You have spoken freely and but honored words. You could not have been here a few years ago. But God has wrought great things. We have the same ancestry history, standards, the same distinctive principles, and link after link is being joined, and are coming nearer—we must soon be one. Your mission work is now one—we ought to be one here. Your Synod and our Assembly cannot before God be much longer apart. How are difficulties to be removed? I think the way is not to speak of expunging past histories. We must not speak of newspaper reports. We must take the word of God and go on our knees. What you have done has been done in honest convictions—so have we. There has been excitement. There has been a Bible laid on the table to be presented to you. Which the Moderator proceeded to present to the delegate in fitting terms. If we walk in the light of this word we will come together; and we will go to South Carolina and be married there. The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on the memorial of Mrs. Hanna, the report of the delegate to the Canada Presbyterian Church, and memorial of Presbytery of Argyle praying that care be taken of United Presbyterians going West. Placed on docket.

The Committee of Correspondence reported the following response to the greeting from the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Richmond, Ind.: Read 1 Thess. 5th chap., 22-23 verses. Quite an exciting passage at arms occurred over the above report. The committee first reported Jer. 6, 16. Mr. Wm. Getty, of Philadelphia, thought this a thrust at the Convention, and proceeded to eulogize highly the Association of the land. Mr. Bain, of Chicago, and Kennedy, of Sewickley, made some strictures on the Association, but the latter message was adopted unanimously.

The remaining part of the session was devoted to religious exercises.

Assembly adjourned, to meet in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Church Horror.

Additional Particulars of the Catastrophe.

Appalling Scenes at the Burning Building.

Desperate Efforts at Self-Preservation.

People Jumping from the Windows.

Piteous Appeals for Help.

Heroic Conduct of a Fireman.

One Man Rendered Insane by Grief.

SPRINGFIELD, May 28.—Intense excitement prevailed last night in Holyoke, centering opposite the church at which the disastrous fire occurred, and at various points to which the burned were carried. Wild efforts were made by the people to rush pell-mell into the burning building to rescue friends, and it was with difficulty they were kept back. This was particularly the case with parents, who had, on the first impulse, rushed from the church to save their own lives, but remembering that they had left their children behind to perish, returned impetuously. Actual personal violence had to be used in several cases to keep the men back. All about the streets men, women and children, were watching piteously and inquiring if their friends had been saved. One woman was positive her husband had perished, and could only be quieted by the assurance from a friend that he had been walking with him.

One of the Most Touching Cases was that of two little girls about twelve years of age, who rushed for the entrance of the building, while the fire was at its height, thinking to find their father and mother, who were within. They could only be restrained by an officer, who took them in his arms. It is a disputed question whether both the front doors were available for escape. There are those who state positively that one of them was closed, and that it was impossible to open it, on account of the crush. One man went to the closed door, and, flourishing a club, threatened violence to any one who came near, in order to get the crowd away, but without success. Others state as positively that both doors were open.

The Church.

The church society was established about seven years ago, and Father Dufresne had been the only pastor. The parish included all the French Catholics of the city, whose number is estimated at from two thousand to twenty-five hundred persons. The church was erected in 1870, entirely of pine, and was about one hundred feet by sixty, two stories, with galleries on the sides and north end, about twenty-five feet wide. There were two doors in the north end of the vestibule, from which two doors opened into the body of the church. The galleries opened into the vestibule. At the rear end was another door, by which a few persons escaped immediate death upon the breaking out of the flames.

The Rush for the Doors.

All the occupants of the galleries rushed to the east door, and falling upon one another, choked up the doorway with their bodies, piled in all ways seven or eight deep. Here most of the lives were lost from this mass. Chief Mullen rescued one young woman after having taken off two dead bodies from above her. The Chief and others had their clothes almost burned from them and were badly burned about the hands. In the rear of the church was the priest's residence, which was also destroyed. The walls were pulled down after the fire was nearly put out.

Jumping from the Windows.

One woman jumped from the highest window down upon the front steps, breaking her arm. A man with two children in his arms, jumped from a window and escaped. One poor woman, enveloped the flames, shrieked out, "For God's sake, save me," and she was dragged out.

The latest dispatch to the Republican from Holyoke, says: It is not quite certain that all the bodies have been taken from the ruins. In the haste to get as many as possible from the building before it fell, several were taken but a short distance, and it is possible a few more may be taken from the debris.

Bodies Identified.

Noon.—The bodies of fifty persons burned to death have been identified, in addition to those of fifteen or twenty who were at once removed to their homes by their friends. Nearly seventy have died, and some forty more are more or less burned, or otherwise injured.

The Hero of the Disaster was John Lynch, a brave fireman, who was first to respond to the alarm. He describes the scene when he reached the burning church as appalling. They were wedged tight and almost immovable in the doorways, and it was a dense mass of humanity from six to eight feet in height, none of them being able to stand upright from the terrible pressure of the crowd behind. Without a moment's pause to consider their danger, Lynch and Chief Engineer Mullin rushed into the flames, spurred on by piteous cries of "For God's sake, come and help us!" and began pulling out bodies. A moment later and a well directed hydrant stream from the Mount Holyoke hose struck the brave rescuers, and undoubtedly saved their lives, while upon and over them a sheet of fire rolled like a wave, streaming far out into the open air.

Some of the poor creatures fell fainting on the long flight of wooden stairs leading down to the street, and a few were able to walk. By this time the entire fire department had arrived, and worked with such energy and will that when the fire was extinguished the charred wooden walls of the structure were standing, and were pulled down by the hook and ladder men in order that a search for the bodies might be made. Only a very few moments comparatively elapsed after water struck the building before the fire was out, but the destruction to life during that brief period was terrible. Some sprang from the gallery windows and were seriously injured, and one person appeared at a window completely and after tottering there an instant, fell to the ground, dead and unrecognizable. Hundreds of men went to the wreck as soon as an opportunity offered to search for bodies, and a force of police was organized to keep back the large crowd which had gathered. The greater number of bodies were found in the fatal entry way, burned some of them to a crisp. The body of one woman was found in the seat she had occupied, her clothing entirely burned off the flesh. The woman, weighing some one hundred and eighty pounds, was dragged screaming from the mass. She was carried a short distance from the church and placed on the grass, while the flesh actually pealed off her back. In a moment she fell over, dead.

Heartrending Scenes.

The scenes last night and to-day in the school house basement, where the bodies of the dead were carried, were heartrending in the extreme. In some instances features were distorted as though extreme agony had been suffered before death. But many looked calm, as though smothered. All were blackened with smoke. Some were burned beyond a possibility of identification, nothing remaining but the trunk.

A coroner's jury was summoned to-day, but the excitement continues so intense that it was judged best not to attempt the taking of evidence, and the inquest was adjourned till Monday.

Insane from Grief.

Louis Desyerdin, fifty-four years old, whose wife and daughter were both burned to death, became insane to-day from grief, and cried continually in an agonizing tone, "O, my Julie! My Julie!" Some were taken out alive who were under others who were dead, and owed to this fact their own salvation.

A Case of Protracted Suffering.

One of the most protracted cases of suffering was that of Mary Desjardin, who, burned past all recognition and blind, somehow found her way to the hill north of the church, and wandered around there about twenty minutes before she was found and taken to her home, where she died about eleven o'clock this morning, having lingered fifteen hours in fearful agony.

The Casualties.

The latest revised figures concerning the losses by the disaster give: Dead, 71; fatally burned, 22; otherwise burned and wounded, 27. Of the 71 dead, 55 are females and 16 males.

THE WEATHER.

Marsh, in a communication to the New York Evening Post, complains of great injustice to him in a Washington dispatch of the 2nd instant, saying that he had expressed great sorrow for having unwittingly caused criticism to the Indian management, which he considers generally good, and that he had not seen the Indian supplies in bulk, but based his complaints on samples shown him by Red Cloud.

RELIGIOUS.

Proceedings of the International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations in Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., May 28.—The proceedings of the Young Men's Christian Associations opened with devotional exercises. The topic: "The work of the International Convention in the West, South and Southwest among Germans, and in other fields," was discussed.

A call of associations for subscriptions in aid of the work of the Executive Committee resulted in raising nine thousand dollars. The Executive Committee also recommend that the resolution of last year, by which it was decided to have only biennial sessions of the International Convention, be rescinded. The report was adopted.

Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly.

JEFFERSON, Texas, May 28.—The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly closed its proceedings to-day. A special committee was appointed to draw up a financial policy for the Church, to present at the next Assembly. The next Assembly will meet in Bowling Green, Ky., on the third Thursday in May, 1876.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

CLEVELAND, O., May 28.—The eighth day's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly commenced this morning at the usual hour. Resolutions in reference to cruelty to animals were adopted.

NEBRASKA.

The Black Hills Transportation Company's Camp Broken Up and Their Wagons and Supplies Destroyed by U. S. Soldiers.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, May 28.—Last Friday morning soldiers under Capt. Walker entered a camp at Gordon City, Neb., and burned fourteen wagons, rations, supplies, and arms, and destroyed everything belonging to the Transportation Company, except some baggage, which they loaded into some remaining wagons and started for Ft. Randall, making the men go on foot, some of them barefooted, the clothing having been destroyed. The mules gave out on the way, and much of the baggage was thrown out. After the capture the officers ransacked the camp, helping themselves to anything they could use, and then turned the soldiers loose at the remainder without hindrance.

WHEELING.

The Riverside Nail Plate Mill and the New Nail Factory Destroyed by Fire—Loss $75,000.

WHEELING, W. VA., May 28.—The Riverside Nail Plate Mill and the new nail factory were totally destroyed by fire at six o'clock this evening. The loss will probably reach $75,000, nearly all, if not entirely, covered by insurance. The greatest loss is on machinery and stock. The plate mill having run continuously throughout the nail feeders' strike, the mill was literally piled with nail plate. The telegraph poles near the mill were on fire several times, but were saved by the firemen without damage. The old nail mill, the largest, was saved uninjured. Had there been any wind blowing at the time of the fire, the conflagration would have been worse.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Destructive Fire—One Hundred and Forty Families Rendered Homeless—Loss $250,000.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., May 28.—A fire broke out this morning in a barn near Kettie's brewery, in Portland, a suburb of this city, and spread very rapidly. It was checked on Main street by the fire engines and a vacant lot, but almost everything between that and Water was burned out. The fire was got completely under control by 6 P. M. St. Luke's church, sixty-eight houses and shops, a large number of outbuildings and a ship on the stocks were destroyed. The loss is $250,000, half covered with insurance. One hundred and forty families are rendered homeless.

Go Neither East Nor West.

One railroad says, Go East, another one says, Go West, but, young man, do not take the advice of either, for since midway of two extremes is the golden mean, you should go to B. Tiegel's Merchant Tailoring House, and order a suit to measure from his summer suitings, which are the latest in style, and which Tiegel can manufacture to your pleasure and gratification, or if not, then you are nobody. Try how much money you can save in a year by your patronage of Tiegel, No. 53 Smithfield street.

Do Not Poison Your Children.

As many have done, by buying for their use Candies and Confections from parties who cannot assure you of their purity, but at the French and American Confection Emporium of L. T. Yoder, 51 Smithfield street, you can purchase them at wholesale or retail without an iota of alloy or adulteration. He manufactures his own confections, and knows their composition to be genuine.

Fresh, Pure and Cheap.

To avoid the danger to life and health from the use of impure and poisoned confections, purchase all articles in this line from Mr. L. T. Yoder, who manufactures French and American confections with the strictest regard to honesty of material. A large and varied assortment at his rooms, No. 51 Smithfield street, at wholesale and retail.

Chimney Flues.

The best article of Chimney Flues are manufactured by N. U. Walker & Co., No. 372 Penn avenue. No building should be considered as safe without them.

French and American Confectionery.

L. T. Yoder, No. 51 Smithfield street, has a full line of confections, nuts and fruits, at wholesale and retail, at very low prices.

Have just finished Refitting our Rooms and have just Opened for Inspection the Finest Stock of First-Class Pianos and Organs ever brought to this city at one time, comprising all the above well-known instruments, all of which are known and recognized the world over as unquestionably the best in the market.
We do not deal in Cheap Shoddy Goods, and will not sell them at any price, so that purchasers have the assurance that what they buy is just what it is represented to be.
We will pursue the same policy in the future that has been so successful in the past, i. e., sell only the very best Instrument at the smallest possible profit.
By pursuing his policy our Trade is to-day, according to the sworn returns of the different Music Houses in Pittsburgh, almost one-third more than any other Pittsburgh House, and as far known, the largest of any Piano and Organ House in Pennsylvania.
Please remember this, that the great aim and object of our business life is to please our customers—
1st. By giving them the best possible Instrument for the lowest possible price.
2d. By giving them every accommodation possible, such as very easy monthly or quarterly payments,
ON OUR NEWLY REVISED PAYMENT PLAN,
So that should the purchaser on this Plan
FALL SICK,
Or meet with disaster in his affairs, he will not lose his instrument or what he has paid on it.
Remember, also, that no matter what others may tell you they can do, S. HAMILTON'S HOUSE will do better for you, because they can sell you a better instrument and they will sell you lower than any other house can afford to sell you. You are cordially invited to call or write to

WHILE decorating graves, thus remembering comrades dead, might it not be well to inquire how the families they left prosper—whether well or ill.

SUMMER seems to have come to stay. The warm, growing weather, so needful for the development of vegetation, continues, and is precisely what the farmers desire.

THE fourth Darien exploring expedition has made its report, the result of which is not more favorable to the building of the proposed ship canal than were previous reports. It is estimated that it will cost at least $56,000,000 and hundreds of human lives to accomplish this work. Not a glowing recommendation, certainly.

THE New York Times is quoted as regarding the anti-Third Term declaration of our State Convention as aimed at the President. What it did say is, "the Convention could not have done less, and could not have done what it has done more respectfully but explicitly." This certainly does not admit of a construction unfavorable to the President.

THEY have the same style of managing things in Tipperary county, Ireland, that they have among the Democrats in New Hampshire. John Mitchell, who was elected by the Home Rulers to Parliament, is declared by the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin to be disqualified, and the man who ran against him is given the place. Thus Democratic influence extends even to Ireland.

THE New York papers are getting rather weary of the expense of a special train to Philadelphia for the benefit of their circulation, and are seeking to induce the Post-office Department to take that elephant off their hands. The Philadelphians protest that the train that leaves New York at midnight supplies all needed mail facilities, and so oppose the project. A very pretty fight.

THE range of life-destroying disaster seems to have greatly extended of late. The "Schiller" loss was followed by other marine disasters of lesser note, and now we have the destruction of a Boston drug store and the families that were living above it, and the burning of a church, with attendant loss of life. Human precaution against such events seems entirely unavailing. The lesson taught is that of peril always around us.

THE United States officers in the Black Hills region fully confirm the report of Professor Marsh that the rations issued to the Indians at Red Cloud agency were in every way defective. The quality was as bad as well could be, and the quantity entirely insufficient. The fact that the traders are doing the finest kind of cheating is illustrated by the circumstance that cattle which should weigh seven hundred pounds, actually weighed but three hundred and fifty. No wonder the Indians are dissatisfied.

THE Cincinnati Commercial is at great pains to gather the public sentiment of South Carolina on the Third Term issue. It is that the State is favorable to it, and that Grant can carry South Carolina as a Third Term candidate by a stronger vote than was ever cast for him. It is the judgment of Governor Chamberlain, who opposes the Third Term, that the delegation from South Carolina to the National Convention will favor it. This is based on the idea, prevalent there, that as he has made a good President for two terms, he will be equally good for a third. Much has been said about the President desiring a third term, yet there is evidence that so far as South Carolina goes, the Third Term seeks him.

THE nervousness existing in Europe over the situation of affairs between France and Germany does not lessen as the result of the Emperors' meeting. In place of this event being regarded as of peaceful outgivings, it is accepted as a threat that the views of Russia and Germany shall be imposed on the Continental powers. This is not merely unpalatable to France and Austria but to England as well, who is inclined to think that she has not been properly considered. France says nothing, but goes deliberately and rapidly forward in her army preparations, and is evidently biding her time. Once her army is ready, and the dictatorial pretensions of Russia and Germany are not likely to be very favorably considered or at all submitted to. It is believed that Europe is on the verge of a fearful war, the elements of which are now distinctly seen. It may be delayed, no one can tell how long,—but when it comes it will be decisive of great results.

THE Philadelphia Times may fairly be said to be badly afflicted with Cameronphobia. It discovers the astute management, and controlling influence of the Senator in everything. He it was that forced the people of the State to re-nominate Hartranft. He particularly controlled the nomination of Rawle. The Convention assembled at Lancaster applauded or was silent, as he directed. It is not entirely certain, indeed, whether the members knew what to order for dinner until Cameron was consulted. Now the truth is, that among the people at large, the renomination of Governor Hartranft was favored without the first thought of Senator Cameron, and while he may have favored Rawle, there are others, who are not controlled by any person, who also favored him. The truth is, the day has gone when any political leader, however influential or able he may be, controls events absolutely. Indeed, it has come to be regarded as a trait of leadership to be able to discriminate the tendency of the popular feeling, and gratify it. If Senator Cameron did this,—and we have no knowledge on the subject, he was simply shrewd. But the Times honors the aged Senator overmuch, when it ascribes everything that occurs to him.

IT is quite noticeable how every sporadic development of rascality is made to do service in the interest of free trade. The Lawrence smuggling of silks is deliberately used by New York merchants, and free trade papers to point an argument in behalf of the reduction of duties on imports. The motives of the merchants are transparent,—they wish to make money at the expense of the Government. Yet the argument used is absurd, and has been shown so frequently. Some recent developments in the whisky business illustrate this quite freshly. The same argument that is applied in the case of smuggling—that high duties are a temptation—refers with equal force, and is used in regard to frauds in the whisky trade. Yet England collects exactly three times as much tax on spirits as does our Government, and has no trouble. Why? Because there officials are carefully selected and laws are rigidly enforced. This plea that the Government, and not the smuggler, is the offender, is an outrage on sense and honesty. To say that duties and taxes must be regulated with reference to the power to resist temptation, possessed by a set of scamps, is highly original and entertaining. The necessities of the Government are nothing, but the virtue of smugglers everything. Yet this is the tenor of an argument we find in the Chicago Tribune.

OUR MEMORIAL DAY.

When rebel guns opened fire upon the almost defenseless and feeble garrison in Fort Sumter, fourteen years ago, an electric thrill ran through the nation, and thousands of men sprang to arms. In a single hour, it dawned on many minds that we were on the eve of a fearful, bloody war. The long-continued threats of the slave power had culminated in overt act, and a bitter struggle was before us. Some there were who, sanguine and hopeful, thought that the affair would end in ninety days, and the nation be more firmly cemented than ever, as the result of a trifling struggle. But ere the ninety days were gone, the conclusion was reached that the war was not a hasty ebullition of passion, to be abandoned as soon as begun; but, rather, was the fruit of a long matured, and carefully arranged plan. It was founded upon passions,—ambition and lust of power,—which have kindled many wars, and deluged fair lands in blood. Politically speaking, slavery was a factor in the conditions upon which power was based, and it had ceased to exert a controlling influence. Slavery was perpetuated, its numbers increased, and its territory extended, because three slaves counted, politically, equally with two whites, as a basis of representation. This slave element was passive and helpless, and hence gave no trouble in the control of political events. It contributed a long lease of power to men to whom its possession was a passion. Little by little, however, the free element grew, until it gained political victory in 1860. The slave power regarded this triumph as the knell of their hopes. If with power in their hands they had steadily lost, till they were eventually overborne, they could not hope, under the changed condition of things, to regain it. Thus reasoning, they staked their all in a struggle that first involved an independent confederacy,—a term which consistently expressed Democratic State Rights, secession theories,—with a glimmering hope that they might even capture the nation's Capital, and dominate the entire North. Out of these purposes and acts came a war, which gave historic battle fields to the world,—but sent hundreds of thousands of brave men to untimely deaths.

The commemorative services of this day are the outgrowth of this war. One illustration of its prolonged and terrible wickedness is in the large number of graves that will be decorated to-day. Yet the thousands thus to be visited but feebly represent the fearful destructiveness of the war. The South is one vast graveyard,—and the bodies of our soldiers have fattened Southern soil. In the long and bloody marches that were made, when day by day fearful battles were fought, and the dead hurriedly buried in trenches or left where they fell, while the army pressed on to new battles, vast numbers were left, whose resting places will never be found. We have never seen an accurate statement of the number who fell in the war, whose places of burial are known, as compared with the number unknown. But it is quite evident that the unknown comprise much the larger number. In camp, on the march, in battle, and in rebel prisons, our soldiers died,—and the larger proportion of such will sleep, their resting places unknown, until the day when all shall rise from the sleep of death.

The services of the day are of the most patriotic and praiseworthy character. The strewing of flowers over the graves of the dead, is akin to the French method of setting apart one day in the year for visiting the cemeteries, and placing immortelles on the tombs of the dead. Our custom will probably broaden, and Decoration Day will yet become a time for general observance,—friends and families employing it to visit and decorate the graves of their dead. As at present conducted, however, it is specially valuable as indicating our regard for those who met danger, and periled life for the safety of the nation. Those who fell at Thermopylæ have become historically immortal, and those who manifested a patriotism that counted neither health nor life, as compared with the maintenance of our Government, are equally deserving of the honors of immortal memory. We have them, sleeping in all our cemeteries, and to-day their comrades and friends gather to testify lovingly to their virtues and memory. Their graves will be beautified, and the air over them made fragrant, by the presence of bright May flowers.

We have heretofore commended this service as a promoter of patriotism. It is something to know that faithful service is lovingly remembered. And the work of decoration cannot be performed without inspiring inquiry as to the cause. Fourteen years does much toward bringing forward a new generation. There are children in whose ears the sound of war never came, and over whose cradles the excitements of the rebellion never surged, who are now old enough to be interested in the event, and to inquire the significance of the Memorial-day services. To them, the information that the honors paid are not because of peculiar and brilliant services, nor have they reference to the special quality of the services at all, farther than as they were patriotic, is fresh, interesting and patriotically inspiring. The humble private who merely stood in the line of duty, is as cheerfully remembered as the officer whose name was blazoned over the land. The one essential fact, that underlies the service of flowers, and that makes significant the day, is, that when the institutions of our country and the Government itself were in peril, these men put their lives in the scale, and did their part in conquering rebellion and making safe the Government.

POLITICAL NOTES.

GOVERNOR EVANS, of Colorado, is a candidate for the United States Senate.

TWENTY-NINE State Senators, besides the House of Representatives, are to be elected in Iowa next fall.

THE Hollidaysburg Register says there is a prospect that the differences among the Republicans of Huntingdon county will soon be healed. The Franklin Repository is of the same opinion.

ONE of the Democratic-Reform Congressmen lately elected in Connecticut, Judge Phelps, is now drawing two salaries—one of $4,000 a year from the State of Connecticut, and another of $500 a month from the Treasury of the United States.

MASSACHUSETTS has one State Senator, at least, that she is proud of. He represented the First District of Bristol county in the last Legislature, and when he received his pay he returned $250 of it to the Treasury, because he had been absent on account of illness during a third of the session. His name is William C. Lovering, and it is pretty safe to say if he ever becomes a Congressman he will not turn out to be a salary grabber.

IN a conversation with a representative of the Cincinnati Commercial a few days ago, Governor Allen, of Ohio, said: "I entered political life in 1834. Of fifty-two United States Senators then living, I am to-day the only surviver. I do not seek office. If the people demand of me the sacrifice of my ease, I am at their service. If I am called to the Government, as God is my searcher and anchor, I shall administer it with honesty and independence."

MR. GEORGE VAIL, of Morristown, N. J., died on Sunday evening, of Bright's disease of the kidneys, at the age of 72. He was twice in Congress, and was afterwards consul at Glasgow under President Buchanan. He co-operated with his father, his brother Alfred, and Professor Morse in perfecting the telegraph and the first telegraphic instruments. He had also been a judge of the Court of Errors of New Jersey.

A STRONG demand will be made upon the next Iowa Legislature for the restoration of capital punishment. During the week ending last Saturday, six murders, not to mention several cases of rape, occurred in that State. It is thought that the sentimental party will make no showing at the polls in the next election.

PERSONAL.

MR. FLORENCE, the comedian, sailed for England, Thursday, in the Russia.

JOHN MODIE, who used to run errands for Robert Burns, has just died, aged 96.

FRIENDS of Mrs. Abbie Sage Richardson deny that she is going to be married again.

FLIPPER, the colored cadet at West Point, stands number forty-six in a class of eighty-five.

GENERAL SHERMAN gets the handsome sum of $60,000 from the Appletons for the copyright of his memoirs, and a royalty on each book sold.

LET us suggest to Weston that he start from San Francisco and walk due west 3,000 miles, taking his own time and making his own terms!

COLONEL ANTHONY, the Leavenworth editor, like Carruth, the Vineland journalist, still survives, with the bullet unremoved from his head.

MR. TRENOR W. PARK, of Bennington, Vt., is said to be the fourth man in point of wealth in the United States, having property valued at $17,000,000.

IT is said that Frank Blair's physician has threatened to give him a "button" if he does not refrain from mumbling bones. Blair only growls at the threat.

THE Duvals, Leroux and Dubois seem to be the French Smiths, Joneses and Robinsons. There are in Paris 4,900 Duvals, 3,250 Leroux, and 3,600 Dubois.

"PROBABLY," says the New Haven Register, "the mule never lived that could drive Grant." The Register, you see, is tired out and disgusted with trying.

COL. ROBERT M. and Stephen A. Douglas, sons of Stephen A. Douglas, have just been awarded by the Court of Claims about $259,000 for cotton seized in Mississippi.

THE Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, with two daughters, and the Rev. Henry C. Potter, D. D., rector of Grace Church, New York, sailed for Europe on Wednesday, on the Russia.

THE Rt. Rev. J. S. Kain, the new Bishop of Wheeling, is the youngest Bishop in the world. He was born in Martinsburg, W. Va., in 1842, which makes him about 33 years old.

A MEMOIR of Gen. Burgoyne is soon to appear in England. It will contain many hitherto unpublished letters of the most eminent English and American statesmen of the time.

THE departure of the President's family for Long Branch, it is understood, has been somewhat hastened, to avoid the birth of a British subject beneath the roof of the Executive Mansion.

DONNA MARIA, the wife of Don Alfonso, is said to look the very reverse of the savage Amazon she might be supposed from all accounts current about her. She is slim, fair-haired, and has lively dark blue eyes.

GEN. BRECKINRIDGE leaves a son who bears the name of "Owen County Breckinridge," in honor of the county which secured the election of his father to Congress in 1853, in the contest with Governor Letcher.

MR. JEFFERSON DAVIS and Generals Wade Hampton and Gordon are expected to deliver addresses at the decoration ceremonies of the Bourbon Confederate Memorial Association at Paris, Ky., on the 10th proximo.

IDA GREELEY SMITH is very petite, and her form is as fragile as a girl of twelve. She has light, soft brown hair, a good complexion and beautiful teeth. The impression she conveys in look and manner is one of ineffable sweetness.

THE Hon. James G. Blaine and Secretary Bristow will deliver addresses at the dedication of the new college buildings at Washington and Jefferson College, at Washington, Pa., on June 30. They are both graduates of the college.

PHOENIXVILLE, Chester county, rejoices in having as a resident an elderly lady, named Mrs. Dougherty, who is 99 years old. If she lives till next year the people of Phoenixville can have a centennial on their account, with Mrs. Dougherty for a subject.

GENERAL SHERIDAN's prospective father-in-law, General Rucker, was depot quartermaster of Washington City during the war, and is remembered by regimental commanders as one who could put more profanity into a five minutes' conversation than any man in America.

MOODY and Sankey continue to hold revival meetings in London daily. There is no diminution in the number of the people who gather to hear them. Among their hearers on Wednesday were the Earl of Shaftesbury, Lord Cairns, the Earl of Caran and many clergymen.

AN English journal notes the singular coincidence that Mr. Michael Levy, the leading publisher of Paris, and Mr. John Harper, the leading publisher of New York, died on the same day. Another coincidence is that Mr. Breckenridge and Mr. Bright, whom he succeeded as the presiding officer of the Senate, died almost at the same time.

SENATOR THURMAN is trying to make the world believe that the celebrated old Megatherium tamer, his father-in-law, Governor Allen, is only 69 years old. We can but regard this slur of Thurman's as a spark of the jealous fires that have of late been raging in his bosom. It is entirely too thin, however, and its animus is so apparent that no one will pay any attention to it.

MR. DISRAELI has been placing his nephew in the very snug position of second clerk in the House of Lords, with the understanding that he is soon to succeed to the principal clerkship—an office of honor and emolument, and permanent. The young gentleman is the oldest son of Mr. Ralph Disraeli, the brother of the Prime Minister, and is named Coningsby, after the hero of the cleverest of Mr. Disraeli's novels. Mr. Coningsby Disraeli will be the heir of his uncle's property, and is said to possess a good share of the intellectual gifts of the family.

MR. JOHN GREEN, a retired merchant of New York, died recently, leaving an estate worth about $7,000,000. His will was probated on Wednesday. Some time before his death Mr. Green donated $1,000,000 to Princeton College. The will leaves Mrs. Green $800,000, besides his residence in Washington square, a house and lot in West Tenth street, his country seat at Castleton, Staten Island, and "Hill Cottage," opposite to it, all his plate, statuary, paintings, books, &c., and pews in the Presbyterian church in University place, in that city, and Christ's church, New Brighton, Staten Island; to his brothers, George S., Henry W., and Caleb S., he leaves $100,000 each; to Mary F. Bachman, the faithful nurse of his deceased children, $1,000; to the College of New Jersey, $100,000; to the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian church of Princeton, $50,000; and the rest of his estate is left in sums of from $5,000 to $50,000 to a very large number of relatives and friends.

FOUR children, one an infant, of S. M. Christian, of Versailles, Ohio, were burned to death last Wednesday, by the explosion of a can of coal oil, with which one of them was endeavoring to kindle the kitchen fire.

CHARLES TREBEG, a horticulturist, living a short distance from East St. Louis, while walking on the track of the St. Louis and Cairo narrow guage railroad, on Thursday night, was run over by a coal train and killed.

WHILE the Ristori troupe were going from Indianapolis to St. Louis, last Saturday, they were robbed of $2,000 worth of diamonds. Detectives arrested the colored porter of the sleeping car, and found the missing gems in his possession.

THE Postmaster General has sent to the Postmaster at Cincinnati the following dispatch, which will apply to all localities where decoration ceremonies are observed to-day: "Decoration Day is not a legal holiday so far as this Department is aware. If it is in Ohio, conduct the office as on other holidays."

ALBERT U. CLARKE, clerk of Chandler & Jenkins, of Baltimore, has been arrested charged with forging the firm's name to a check for ten thousand dollars, which was presented to the Farmers and Merchants' Bank and certified, and the money drawn by Clarke. Nearly the whole amount was recovered.

A DUBUQUE printer received the following note from his girl: "May I git yanked out of bed at midnight every nite by a cuss like Theodore Tilton's, an' carried upp a million pare of stares, iff ever I sese to love you, Jim."

SINCE 1848 San Francisco papers claim that fifteen hundred millions of dollars in gold and silver have been poured into the world's commerce from that port. Australia and other gold and silver regions have yielded as much more. Out of the whole of all this wealth of production, the United States, it is estimated, hold less than two hundred millions. Where is it?

THE agricultural statistics of Ireland for 1874 show an increase in the quantities of agricultural products, although a decrease in the acreage under crops compared with 1873. The number of emigrants who left Irish ports in 1874 was 74,779, a decrease of 16,218 when compared with 1873. This, together with the increase in the products of the country, seem to indicate a gratifying degree of prosperity in the Emerald Isle.

FROM PUT-IN-BAY.

A Scrap of History—Commodore Perry's Pay Ship—The Islands—Their Healthfulness and Fertility—Old John Brown's Sons—Late Improvements.

PUT-IN-BAY, Ohio, May 27, 1875.

While wandering through this delightful region, it occurred to us that there should be some stories or legends among the people in regard to Commodore Perry and his ships. But diligent inquiry failed to develop anything of the weird type. The graves of four officers, two American and two British, were pointed out on Put-in-Bay Island, near the dock. A willow tree grows in the midst of the enclosure. A prominent physician and surgeon of Cincinnati, whose name we fail to remember, claims to have planted that tree. It was simply a little willow twig which he carried in his hand at the time of the funeral. After the graves were filled up, he stuck it in one of the mounds. Fortunately it took root and grew, and is now almost as large as any other tree on the island. This burial spot is in the lawn immediately in front of the Put-in-Bay House. It is surrounded by posts and a chain. The former serves as a hitching place for horses, while the chain, hanging loosely between the posts, forms splendid swings for the school children. There is no tablet or stone to inform the visitor who is resting 'neath this old willow tree, although the names are on record in the archives of the State at Columbus. It is very strange that some generous person does not erect a marble slab over these graves, with the names of the sleepers thereon. Col. Sweney, of the Put-in-Bay House, endeavored at one time to raise sufficient money to secure a monument to be erected here, not only as a commemoration of the dead, but of the great victory also. The islanders claim that this is where the Perry monument should be instead of Cleveland, as it was here the battle was planned and fought.

Perry's Pay Ship.

While out in the vicinity of the battle ground and near where some of the vessels went down, we were startled by an unexpected remark from the young man who rowed our boat, while we endeavored to inveigle hungry bass onto our hook, with all earnestness he said:

"This yer lake's goine dry some day."

What makes you think that:

"Well, you see that the Niager Falls is given away more and more every year. Some of these times it will bust out, and then away goes yer lakes. Golly, won't there be good fishin then. A fellow can have his pick and choice. But fish won't be worth ten cents a barrel then. But I would'nt stop to fish if they was a hundred dollars a barrel."

You would not be too badly scared would you?

"Not any, I'd just set out for Perry's pay ship. She went down out here near the Middle Sister, and she had lots of gold and silver on board. I'd load my boat full, and lite out for tall timber and let the fish go to Halifax."

"You don't expect to live until Niagara Falls wear out, do you?"

"No, not exactly; but it wouldn't surprise me if some fellow didn't put a one thousand barrels of powder under her some of these days, and blow her sky-high. I wish they would. It would make things lively round here for a few days."

With this he became thoughtful, and devoted himself assiduously to trolling his line around the bow of the boat in search of black bass.

There seems to be a firm conviction on the part of the islanders that there is a vast fortune at the bottom of the lake, if they could only devise some way to get it. The exact locations of the wrecks are noted on the Government charts, but as far as we could learn, no efforts have ever been made to raise them, or even to search them. The probability is that the pay-ship had but little money, if any at all, on board, as there is no mention made of it in the Commodore's reports.

The Islands.

These islands are a surprise to all who see them the first time. They rise rocky and bluff from the water with here and there a short stretch of sandy or gravelly beach. The sub-stratums are limestone, of a very fine quality. Strange to say, the stone on no two of them is exactly alike. That on Kelly's Island is possibly the best for building purposes. Shipload after shipload is taken from here to Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo and other ports, then shipped by rail to all parts of the country. Thousands upon thousands of cords are shipped to the iron furnaces throughout the States of Ohio and Pennsylvania for fluxing purposes. The building and paving stone is taken out in layers, ranging from one to ten and twelve inches in thickness, and of any desired length and breadth. Many of the streets in the lake cities are paved with this stone, the pavement being constructed after the fashion of the Nicholson.

Before these islands were given up entirely to grape growing, some of the larger ones were cultivated and produced wonderful crops of wheat and other small grain. Now there is but little else than grapes and small fruit raised, because it is so much more profitable. At present there are not less than a million and a half gallons of wine in the island cellars. It is superior in quality to that made in any other part of this country, and owing to its cheapness large quantities are being shipped to Europe.

In point of healthfulness, perhaps the islands have no superior. There is never a drop of dew to be found, the atmosphere being always dry and invigorating. Consumptives have found this to be a very beneficial resort during the summer months. Sickness of any kind is seldom heard of, and the people all have a hardy, healthful appearance, refreshing to behold. Many of them are of German and Swiss descent. The elder ones remind us of "Rip Van Winkle," with their long white hair and beard. The women possess a perfection of development and freshness that is the exception in cities.

Old John Brown's Boys.

On Put-in-Bay Island we found the residence of Captain John Brown, Jr., and his brother, Owen. The latter was with his father through all the Kansas troubles, and succeeded in making his escape from Harper's Ferry after the capture of his father, thereby saving his neck from the hemp. They are engaged in grape culture, and are living very comfortably. John received the appointment of assistant geologist to the Black Hills surveying expedition sent out this spring by the Government.

A Popular Resort.

About eight years ago the first hotel was put up on Put-in-Bay Island. It had accommodations for less than fifty guests, and was patronized mostly by fishermen. Now there are four hotels with accommodations for twelve hundred guests. During the summer season they are usually full. It is no uncommon thing to see from ten to twelve thousand people on this Island alone. Excursions come by rail and steamer from every direction. It has also been selected as a regular place of meeting for a number of State medical, editorial and teachers associations. The first excursion of the season is of the pencil-slinging fraternity, which takes place on the 26th inst. Then follows the National Homeopathic Association. The National Allopathic Association also meets at the same time. Already there are over twenty meetings of this kind booked for the season. The last one is the Fat Mens' Convention, which meets on the 13th of September, the anniversary of Perry's Victory.

The Hotels.

The largest hotel here is the "Put-in-Bay House." It contains over four hundred pleasant rooms, and is located on the edge of the bay, immediately in front of Gibraltar, Jay Cooke's famous summer residence. The house has, on its own account, gas works large enough to supply a little town, and complete water works. It is owned and managed by Sweeney, West & Co. The next is the "Beebe House," kept by the Beebe Brothers, of Cincinnati. It is large and well furnished. The "Hunker House" is a cozy place, beautifully located, with the best boating beach on the island, and is kept by A. H. Hunker, formerly of Pittsburgh. Besides these, there are a number of restaurants and dining rooms. When it is considered that all these have sprung up within five years, some idea of the great popularity of the place may be obtained.

Bass Fishing.

One of the attractive features of the place, and the one that first led visitors to it, is the excellent bass fishing. It is admitted now by all that the black bass is the gamest as well as the most toothsome fish that swims in American waters, the claims of mountain trout to the contrary, notwithstanding. These islands are their favorite resort, and thousands of them are taken on the hook here annually. They are so plenty that there never is any danger of being unable to get a respectable string. The present season is the best for a number of years, and the hotels are rapidly filling up with the disciples of Izaak Walton, and the cry is, still they come.

The stormy season having passed over until winter, we are having most delightful weather, which, unless nature changes her usual course, will continue until October. But to appreciate the loveliness of the scenery, the purity of the atmosphere and the good times we are having you must come up and take it in yourselves.

ILLINOIS.

General Conference of the Methodist Church—Fourth Day.

Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.

PRINCETON, Ill., May 22, 1875.

The Conference met at half-past eight o'clock this morning, and engaged in devotional exercises for half an hour, under the direction of Rev. T. B. Graham, of the Ohio Conference.

Revs. Muncy, Bible agent of Illinois, and Milligen, Presbyterian minister, were introduced to the Conference.

A number of papers proposing certain changes in the Discipline, were presented and appropriately referred.

Rev. James Robison, book agent, at Pittsburgh, made the following quadrennial report: Received from subscription for Recorder, $37,524.39; for subscription for the Morning Guide, $13,311.77; for advertising for same time, $7,787.43; from sale of books, $23,059.88, making the gross proceeds for the last four years $81,834.48.

The Committee on Methodist Union reported in favor of uniting upon suitable terms with the Methodist Protestant Church and recommended the following named persons as the Board of Commissioners, to meet a similarly appointed Board of Commissioners to prepare a suitable basis of Union, which is to be submitted to the people for its ratification or rejection: William Collier, D. D., A. H. Bassett, E. A. Wheat, John Cowl, John Kast, L. L. D. Laymen, Hon. F. H. Pierpont, T. J. Finch, J. Amos, J. R. Mulvane.

On motion, Rev. John Scott, D. D., was appointed to prepare the sermons of the late Rev. George Brown, D. D., for publication, and the Book Concern was authorized to publish said work and retain the proceeds as compensation.

Rev. J. B. Walker, corresponding Secretary of the Ministerial Board of Education made his report. Tuesday evening, 25th instant was set apart for the purpose of celebrating ths Lord's Supper by the General Conference.

All the pulpits in Princeton will be supplied with the members of the Conference to-morrow. The attendance is still increasing, and everything is passing on most harmoniously. The Conference will in all probability conclude its labors by the close of next week.

Professor H. H. Gimke, photographer, of Princeton, has just taken a group picture of the General Conference for the purpose of displaying his superior skill in this important art.

PRINCETON, May 24, 1875.

FIFTH DAY.

The Conference met at 8½ o'clock this morning and engaged in devotional exercises under the direction of Rev. Dr. Flood, of Ohio. The Committee on Missions made their report, recommending the assessment of the sum of $50,000 for the various annual conferences for missionary purposes, for the ensuing year. The Committee on Church Extensions reported a plan for the organization of a Church Extension Society for the whole church, which was adopted. In the afternoon the venerable Bishop Janes, of the M. E. church, was introduced as a fraternal messenger from his denomination, and at the end of the session closed the exercises with prayer. In the evening Rev. A. Clark, editor of the Methodist Recorder, delivered a lecture on "California" to a large audience. The proceeds were for the benefit of the church in which the Conference is being held.

TUESDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The Conference met this morning at 8½ o'clock and engaged in devotional exercises under the direction of Rev. G. G. Westfall, of Pennsylvania. The Committee on Fraternal Relation announced Rev. H. R. Parsons, of Ohio, and T. H. Colhouer, of Pittsburgh, Pa., to respond to the fraternal messengers of the U. P. church, and Rev. A. H. Bassett and John Burns to repond to Bishop E. S. Janes, of the M. E. church. At 10 A. M. the venerable Bishop was introduced to the Conference, and delivered a very kind and fraternal address, which was suitably responded to by Revs. Burns, Clark and Dr. John Scott. Rev. Collier, D. D., President of the Board of Missions, arrived to-day from Pittsburgh and opened the afternoon session with religious services. The attendance is large, and the various committees are working night and day in order to complete the business at the earliest period of time. The best of spirit prevails, and the work is progressing harmoniously. To-morrow evening, the 26th inst., the Conference will unite with the congregation in celebrating the Lord's Supper. Bishop E. S. Janes, of the M. E. church, will preach before the Conference to-night. More anon.

Its Great Popularity in the Country—Customers Delighted with the Good Quality and Low Prices of Goods.

A LETTER:

The goods ordered are received promptly. Quality good, prices very low. Your "New System" must change the old ways when the BIG REDUCTIONS are known to the people.

HOW THEY TALK:

It would have saved me 50c per yard on my black silk dress. Another: I could have saved 77c on my silk sun umbrella. Another: These 97c double-steel corsets are as good as the one I paid $1 25 for. Another: Why, your $1 23 glove is the same as my $1.75 pair, and they say, Carlisle warrants his. Another: I paid only 49c for this heavy 7 inch black sash ribbon, and 24c for this plaid sash. How does he sell so cheap?

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 29, 1875.

Our banks continue to report decided demands for money, and a good line of discounts of a very acceptable character. The prevailing impression is that this represents a new phase in the recuperation of business, and indicates a growing revival of business confidence. Elsewhere the same peculiarities are beginning to be noticed. The New York Bulletin says, "the loan market has recently developed a much more decided desire to employ capital than has been apparent for many months past. Lenders, while still careful, do not show the excessive caution and the willingness to keep their means absolutely idle rather than take average risks that they have exhibited ever since the panic. And it seems quite reasonable to expect that such a change should come over the disposition of the lending class. They have seen mercantile borrowers subjected to twenty months of the most trying pressure experienced within the last forty years; prices have shrunk during this period on an average fully 25 per cent.; losses have taken the place of ordinary profits, and the limitation of credit has compelled a large amount of liquidation; and yet this test has been endured with a degree of immunity from failures which remarkably demonstrates the strength of our commercial community. This thorough probing of the mercantile class has very naturally convinced intelligent lenders that our merchants are as deserving of credit as they ever were, and that discounts are not at present attended with any more risk than in ordinary times; and hence they show a disposition to take a class of paper which they have for months entirely discarded."

This increased disposition to lend we regard as the most conclusive promise of an early recovery in business that has yet appeared. When borrowing becomes easier, the transaction of business is facilitated; things, in the way of production and trade, become possible that were impossible before; the favorable conditions to production arising from lower wages and lower prices of land, buildings, machinery, and raw materials, lead to new enterprises; and when the greater readiness to lend has thus stimulated business, the improvement in trade reacts favorably on the loan market, at the same time strengthening the confidence of lenders, and enabling them to obtain better rates upon their investments. We think these foreshadowings, from the present condition of the loan market, will be confirmed by the judgment of those most familiar with its present condition and workings.

NEW YORK, May 28, 1875.

Money was easy at 2½; prime mercantile paper 3½a5. Sterling was firmer at 486½a487 for sixty day and 489½a490 for sight. The dry goods imports for the week were $1,536,400. The customs receipts were $263,000. Gold was strong, opening at 116¼, declining to 116, and closing at 116⅛. The borrowing rates were 1a4 per annum, and 1-64 per diem. Loans were also made flat. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $87,000. The clearings were $23,000,000. The specie shipments for to-morrow will probably be $1,250,000. Governments and railroad bonds are firm. State bonds are quiet.

The Stock Exchange to-day was a scene of great excitement and a further heavy decline in values, attended with enormous business. The pressure to sell was very great, and at intervals the market was on the verge of a panic. Stocks opened with great depression, and prices declined rapidly. Lake Shore led the market on the downward turn, dropping from 62 to 59½ under a heavy pressure of sales. New York Central and Rock Island followed, the former declining from 102 to 100, and the latter from 102½ to 100½. Western Union broke to 72½, a decline of 1½ per cent. as compared with the closing quotation on Thursday. Erie declined from 18⅞ to 17⅞, Northwest from 38⅞ to 38, St. Paul from 32½ to 32, Union Pacific from 74⅞ to 73⅞, Michigan Central from 64 to 63, and Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph from 22½ to 22. Panama opened at 126, against 128 at the close yesterday, but later sold at 129. After midday a steadier tone set in, and prices recovered ½ to 1½ per cent. Pacific Mail was exceptionally firm, rising from 33 to 34½. Erie was made scarce and loaned as high as 3-32 for use.

At the final close the stock market was strong for Pacific Mail, weak for Erie, and otherwise steady. Lake Shore, after declining from 62 to 59½, closed at 61. Pacific Mail declined to 33, and closed at 34½. Panama ranged between 126 and 129, and left off at 128½. New York Central dropped from 102 to 100, and closed at 101½. Rock Island declined from 102½ to 100½, with the last sales at 102½. Union Pacific fell from 74⅞ to 73⅞, and recovered to 74⅞. Erie declined from 18⅞ to 17⅞, closing at 17⅞. The stock was weak after the squeeze of the day was over. Northwest, after declining to 38, rallied to 38⅞. St. Paul common dropped from 32⅞ to 32, and closed at 32⅞. Ohio & Mississippi fell off from 22⅞ to 21½, with the last sales at 22½. Michigan Central declined from 64 to 63. Pittsburgh sold at 87½ against 90 yesterday.

The Erie movement gathered fresh interest to-day from the fact that an attempt was made to exact something for the use of shares both here and at London. In our own market borrowers paid 1-16 to ⅛ at one time, but finally 3 per cent. was paid for carrying. At London the stock cost 3d to 6d for use, but the latest cable quotations were flat. About 4,500 shares of Lake Shore, Western Union, Erie and Northwestern were sold out under the rule to-day for account of E. Washburn & Co. and S. N. Solomon. 3,100 of the shares were Lake Shore. The suspension of the above firms was caused by losses on privileges which each concern had sold and was not able to honor. The "short" interest in the market has largely increased in the past few days. The long war between the trunk lines, which recently culminated in placing the Erie road in the hands of a receiver, has done much to undermine public confidence in the value of railway stocks.

Among the sales on the Stock Exchange to-day were 62,000 shares Pacific Mail, 93,000 Western Union, 7,000 Northwestern, 7,000 Rock Island, 4,000 St. Paul, 37,000 Erie, 86,000 Lake Shore, 11,000 New York Central, 6,000 Ohios, and 6,000 Union Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 28, 1875.

The general merchandise markets continue slow, as dealers generally are not disposed to anticipate future wants, and the indications are that this hand-to-mouth policy will be pretty closely adhered to until confidence becomes more fully restored. There was a rather firmer feeling in Grain and Provisions, in consequence of the reaction in Chicago on Thursday, but as yet there has been no improvement in prices here; there is a disposition on the part of the trade generally to wait a little in order to ascertain if possible whether the reaction will hold any length of time.

APPLES—Sales in a jobbing way at $2,50@3 ℔ bbl for common to fair, and $3,50@4 for prime to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—50@55 ℔ gal.

BEANS—Dull but unchanged; mediums, $1,75@1,80; navies, $1,90@2.

BUTTER—There were sales reported to-day at 25@28 for prime to choice solid packed and rolls, and 18@22 for medium to good. The general impression, however, is that current rates cannot be much longer maintained.

CHEESE—Continues to come in freely, and with the stock accumulating and a stronger disposition to realize, prices are weak and drooping; prime new Ohio Factory quotable at 13@13½.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches, halves, 10@10½, Apples, 9@9c; Blackberries, 9@10.

EGGS—The market was reported easier, if anything to-day, although there was no quotable change in prices, 16@17.

FLOUR—We have to report a quiet market without, however, any change in prices. Spring wheat flours, $6 for good Wisconsins and $6,25 for choice Minnesotas; winters, $5,50@6,75 for red and $7@7,25 for amber and white. Rye Flour, $6,00@6,25.

GROCERIES—The grocery trade continues dull, more so than it ought to be or usually is at this season of the year. Those of our merchants doing a country trade have had a fair business this Spring, but those dependant upon the city have not only had a light demand for goods, but, furthermore, they have had considerable difficulty in making collections. The leading staples present no new features worthy of special notice to which reference has not previously been made in these columns.

GRAIN—There was a firmer feeling in the grain markets to-day, under the influence of Thursday's advices from Chicago, but there was no perceptible improvement in the demand and no quotable change in prices. Wheat continues quiet, but little offering and there is not as much inquiry as there has been, as millers expect it to go lower; Penna. and Ohio red, $1,25@1,30, as to quality, and 8 to 5 cents additional for amber and white. There has been a decline within the past few days of 10@12 cents ℔ bushel in Spring on Chicago. The Oat market was firmer, and the supply continues light; mixed, 71@72; white, 73@74. The demand continues light, as feeders generally are substituting other cheaper feed. Ear Corn is quotable at 83@84, and shelled at 82@83, free in elevator, with not much inquiry for either. Rye nominal at $1,15@1,20.

HAY—There is considerable inquiry for baled, and the market is firm but unchanged; $22@24 for timothy, as to quality.

POTATOES—Market continues dull, but prices remain as last quoted; Peach Blows, on track, 83@85c; Chilis and Peerless, 75@80 cents; Early Rose, 65@70c.

PROVISIONS—The market was firmer to-day, but there is no quotable change in prices.

RAGS—Quiet and unchanged; regular sales at 2⅜@3 cts for good mixed, woolen ⅛c ℔ ℔.

SEEDS—Clover, $7,75@8 for medium, and $8,75@9 for mammoth. Timothy Seed, $2,75@3.

TALLOW—Steady at 7½ to 8c for prime country, and 8⅜ to 8½ for city rendered.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 28, 1875.

PIG IRON.

Trade has been quiet during the past week, the volume of business reported being considerably below that of the week preceding; and while there has been no change whatever in prices, the general tone of the market is firmer. It appears to be pretty generally conceded that there is more pig iron being consumed than is being made, that the production is below the consumption, not only here but elsewhere, and with stocks very much reduced, producers are hopeful, providing the demand keeps up, of being able to realize better rates before long. It is claimed that mill iron is cheaper here than at almost any other point in the country, yet manufacturers continue to complain that it is higher relatively than the products. Advices from the Shenango and Mahoning Valleys report sales at $23@24 at furnaces, $1@1.50 per ton better than can be obtained here; it is true some producers are refusing to sell under $25, 4 months, delivered here, but as yet the mills have not succeeded in obtaining all they wanted at $24, 4 mos, which may be regarded as the ruling price. Following sales were reported:

CHARCOAL.

MANUFACTURED IRON.

Every mill in this vicinity is now in operation, excepting Wharton's and the Superior Rail Mill, both of which are bankrupt, and there is as much finished being made here now as there ever was before, if not more, as many of them are working double turn. Even the old Wood mill, which stood idle for about three years, has been started up, and all the puddling furnaces of the McKnight, Porter & Co. mill have been lighted up again. However, manufacturers generally continue to report trade unsatisfactory; not that there is a scarcity of orders, but it is alleged that prices afford little or no margin for profit. We continue to quote upon a basis of 2,35@2,40 for merchant bars.

NAILS.

The Nail trade continues fairly active, the mills are all busy, although orders are not coming in as freely as they did during the early part of the month; however, business usually commences to slack off at this particular time. Prices unchanged; $3, sixty days, with the usual discount of two per cent. for cash.

SCRAP IRON.

Continues dull, but prices are maintained; No. wrought, $32@33, 4 months, delivered free at mills. Scrap Steel in light stock and steady.

BRITISH IRON MARKET.

A cable dispatch to the Iron Age, under date of 26th, says: Scotch Pig.—There has been a steady demand, and a large business has been done. Prices are weaker. The following are makers' quotations:

Gartsherrie No. 1	68s 6d
Coltness No. 1	70s 6d
Glengarnock No. 1	71s
Eglinton No. 1	63s

Manufactured Iron.—A fair amount of business done; prices are declining.

Rails.—No change to note in condition of market or quotations.

NEW YORK.

American Pig.—Although a few companies report a trifling increase of orders, still, as a rule, the general market is without improvement, and presents about the same general features. The asking values continue about the same, though many makers have shown a disposition to shade, in fact some offerings have been made at a trifle below generally current views, without, however, resulting in any extended transactions as far as known. The rumors noted last week of several thousand tons in Philadelphia liable to be thrown on the market, owing to recent failures, are still talked of around the market, though nothing more definite has transpired. We note a sale reported of 500 tons Forge, and several other sales are talked of, though particulars are kept private. We quote Foundry No. 1 at $27@28; Foundry No. 2 at $25@26, and Gray Forge at $23@25.

PHILADELPHIA.

Considerably to the surprise of most of the trade, a tolerably active demand has sprung up in the market for Pig metal, and the sales for the past ten days indicate that consumers are in receipt of orders from some source. Various causes contribute to this belief, the principal of which is that it is generally accepted as true, and indeed asserted from the very best authority, that the coal strike is at an end, or so nearly so as to render it probable that a majority of the collieries will be at work by the first of the coming month. Already a number of collieries in the Shamokin region have resumed, while from the Lehigh region it is reported that the miners of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company are all anxious to go to work at a reduction on the basis of 1874. The terms hitherto claimed by them. The effect of this will be, it is believed, to induce furnace owners to blow in a number of stacks now either out of blast or banked, as with a supply of coal at fair prices many consuming industries now idle will resume work. Prices of Pig Iron must, however, be either better or more firmly maintained than at present, to enable a profit to furnaces. One element of low prices, and which has been constantly made use of to bear the market, has been the stocks of hypothecated irons liable at any moment to be sold. This is fortunately now removed by the sales of some 3,000 tons of the iron, which is, it is said, the last to be offered, and which not only relieves the market, but will stimulate prices for the daily product. Another cause for an advance is to be found in the somewhat lively demand for Pig Irons, in which there have been very considerable transactions, as will be seen, caused by the advance in prices of pipes of most kinds, and especially in wrought, steam, gas and water tubes, which list will be noted below. A small upward movement now, joined to a resumption by general manufacturers, will readily give a sufficient demand for Pig metal to justify universal production for the remainder of the year. In Manufactured Irons there is also a better feeling. Bars are in tolerable request. Plates and Sheets better, and Rails more sought than for some weeks. Old material is also quite firm, Old Rails and Scrap both being in better demand than hitherto. The transactions for the week have been quite considerable in Pig metal, and amount, in the aggregate, to over ten thousand tons, exclusive of sales of hypothecated irons. We also have to note, within the past fortnight, sales of considerable Scrap and metals on Government account at the navy yard here, all of which brought full prices. Prices ranging in this market may be quoted as follows, viz.:

Pig Iron.—No. 1 Foundry, $27@28; No. 2, $25@26; Gray Forge, $24,00@25. Bars.—2.6 to 2.7 cents ℔ pound.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 28, 1875.

The market for both crude and refined was firm and considerably excited, and as compared with yesterday prices have further advanced. Crude was quoted at $1,55@1,57½ for immediate shipment, with every prospect at this writing of a still further rise. As compared with the early part of the week there has been an advance of 20 to 22½ cents per barrel, and as already stated, it will probably go still higher between now and the close of the week. Refined has also gone still higher, with considerable inquiry and the market is considerably excited; quotable at 11@11⅜ deliverable at Connellsville depot, to go to Baltimore, against 9⅜@9½ in the early part of the week. Philadelphia delivery, 14; Baltimore, 13⅜@14.

The Barrel market continues quiet and unchanged; country, $1,10@1,15, city make, $1,25 for 9½, and $1,30 for 10 ℔ hoops.

Capacity of vessels loading at New York on 25th inst., 127,000 bbls and 157,000 cases; amount on board, 33,000 bbls and 11,200 cases; required to fill, 104,000 bbls and 146,800 cases. At Philadelphia on 25th inst., capacity of vessels loading, 102,450 bbls, 52,000 cases; amount on board, 11,000 bbls, 10,000 cases; required to fill, 91,450 bbls, 42,000 cases. Stock on May 22d, about 88,000 bbls. At Baltimore there was, on May 24, a capacity on berth of 34,100 bbls refined oil, with 2,200 bbls on board, leaving 31,900 bbls required to fill.

The Situation at Chicago on Wednesday—Speculation and Its Probable Results.

The leading produce markets were very weak yesterday, the feeling being heavier than previously, though the drop in grain was not so severe. Provisions broke badly. There was a general feeling of distrust, not only of values but of stability, the recent decline having been so heavy as to involve enormous losses to the people owning property. Hence there was a general calling for margins, and several operators were required to put up who are usually exempt from that infliction, their word being considered as "good as the gold." The situation was really gloomy. Our markets have been held up by speculative confidence, and plenty of money, above the point at which the property could be shipped without loss. Now that the backbone has been taken out, and holders show themselves willing to part with their produce at shipping prices, the Eastern markets are declining too, so that there is no more inducement to ship now than there was when prices were materially higher. Of course this decline will find a limit, but at present the position of that limit is exceedingly problematical. Wheat, the great staple, is already below the cost of production but there are 12,000,000 bushels in sight and Great Britain only wants 9,000,000 bu to supply her deficiency from now till the next harvest, while there is more wheat in farmers' hands than is usual at this date. Hence there is still a pressure, in the absence of an adequate outlet, and if the market should recede to 75c there would still be a surplus, which would not be extinguished by the increased consumption due to very low prices. The wheat market is dragging down the others, all of which are relatively high. There is not such a surplus of corn, but there will be enough. Pork is in excessive stock for the price, and very little demand for it; while lard, though not in excessive supply, is a comparative drug, as the current demand for consumption is met by an unexpectedly large supply of summer hogs. These are the arguments adduced now in favor of still lower prices. They were more cogent three weeks ago when prices were higher, but little importance was attached to them then, as the current of popular feeling did not set that way. Then one man bought because his neighbor was doing so; now he sells for the same reason,—if for no other.

The character of the present movement in prices is apparent. There is too much produce in the world for present needs, and it cannot all be worked off for speedy consumption, if grain should go down to 10 cents ℔ bushel and pork to $1 ℔ barrel. Consumption will undoubtedly be stimulated by very low prices; but there will be a surplus after all, which must be carried by some one. Hence the property will work round ultimately into strong hands, who will take hold of it when prices seem to have gone low enough for safety, just as they did immediately after the panic of 1873. Capitalists are now looking over the situation, but at present do not seem in a hurry to go in, as current prices do not seem to invite a long investment, which is the only plan on which the surplus can be carried with a good prospect of profit. Meanwhile the bears have their day, and the mills must wait for another turn of the sphere to bring them into the ascendant.

At present we have fully $7,500,000 invested in provisions, and another $7,000,000 invested in flour and grain in this city, or $14,500,000 in provisions and breadstuffs alone. Very little of the stuff is, however, owned by the nominal owners. Most of it is being simply carried along from one month to another on differences, which pay the cost of storage and insurance and a fair interest on the use of the money. A very large proportion of this cost of carrying has hitherto been paid by country operators.—Tribune.

ARRIVALS.

Elizabeth, Irwin, Elizabeth.

DEPARTURES.

Granite State, Kerr, Portsmouth.
Mallie Ragon, Williamson, Wheeling.

THE stage of water last evening was five feet one inch and falling. Business continues slow, but it is hoped that there will be an improvement within the next day or two.

THE Utah was loading at Cincinnati for this port on Thursday.

THERE are risks in Cincinnati offices on the cargo of the Mollie Ebert amounting to $16,942.

THE Acorn arrived from Raccoon, where she left the coal fleet all right on Thursday evening.

CAPT. JOHN Parrish, who has been ill for some time past, is again in command of the J. N. Camden.

THE Exchange, Captain Shuman, as will be seen by card, is announced to take her departure for Cincinnati to-day.

CAPTAIN ARCHIE C. GODDIN, an old and well-known steamboatman has gone into the steamboat agency business at New Orleans.

THE John A. Wood, with a tow of empties passed Cincinnati on Thursday night, as did also the A. J. Baker with two barges of ore.

THE Fearless barges, which were considerably damaged by fire on Wednesday night, are insured for $2,000 each in the Eureka, Cincinnati.

PILOT GEO. POE, of the Mallie Ragon, reports that the signal light at the head of Merriman, was out at two o'clock on Friday morning, when the Ragon passed that point.

CAPT GEO. W. NEARE has instructed Captain James W. Batchelor, clerk of the Mollie Ebert, to represent the Cincinnati Underwriters in the adjustment of losses, Captain Batchelor being an experienced underwriter.

COL. WHITNEY has not yet succeeded in getting a boat for the Illinois river trade. He will charter till he can build. He wants a boat one hundred and ninety feet long, thirty-four feet beam, and four and a half feet hold. His address is New St. Louis.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says that Ainslee, Cochran & Co., of Louisville, received the contract for building the machinery and boilers of the new iron snag-boat for the government. Hartupee & Co. will be surprised if they ever read the paragraph and give it credence.

THE St. Louis Globe, of Wednesday, says:—The Rover arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday with a fine trip. She has on board of her as officers some of the old-timers—Captain Greenlee & Son, Captain William Gray, Captain Beltzhoover, and Mr. Ledlie. Long may they be able to stand their regular watch.

THE Mallie Ragon reports having met the coal fleet as follows: Geo. Lyle, Yellow Creek; Coal Valley, Clipper, Tiger and Joseph Stone at Wellsville; My Choice at Arbuckles; Jim Brown and Dexter at Walker's Brick Yard; Whale at Liverpool; J. A. Blackmore at Babb's Island; one, name unknown, laid up at Safe Harbor. One barge, belonging to Bigley, at Hay's Bar; one, the property of Dippold, at White. The Gipsey also stuck one at Merriman, but succeeded in getting it off. No other mishaps reported up to this writing.

YESTERDAY'S Cincinnati Commercial says:—The Charles Morgan reshipped two packages of sundries, fifty-four barrels of rice, one box and one barrel of lemon sugar, twenty-one barrels of onions, and three packages of glassware, for Wheeling and Pittsburgh, on the Andes......The smoky City, with twenty-one empty barges, from New Orleans, and J. A. Baker, with two barges laden with iron ore, from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed up......The John A. Wood, from New Orleans, with a large empty tow for Pittsburgh, passed up......The General Buell reshipped 800 barrels of flour for Pittsburgh on the Andes......The receipts for wharfage during the week amounted to $861.95.

ST. LOUIS advices, under date of the 26th, report as follows:—Business to-day was very good. The arrivals brought heavy cargoes, and the departures all took out paying trips. The John A. Scudder refused freight; and the James Howard began receiving this afternoon, to follow on Saturday, when the Barge Line send a tow also. James A. Bruce, late mate of the Belle of Shreveport, died at his home, in this city, this morning, of inflammatory rheumatism, aged thirty-three years. He leaves a wife and one child. The Ironsides came from Muscatine, and leaves for Pittsburgh on Friday with 5 barges of iron ore. The J. W. Means leaves for Ashland on Saturday morning with 1,300 tons. The Mary Boyd lays up, and the Laura L. Davis will get away for Cincinnati on Saturday. The John B. Maude is being repaired, and will be ready to load for some point by June 10th. Capt. G. Gray is still here. Cloudy and hot. River falling.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Circulation, 15,700.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The current issue of the WEEKLY GAZETTE is for sale on our counter to-day. It contains a complete résumé of local and general news, telegraphic intelligence from every part of the world, commercial, financial, oil and cattle market reports, and editorials on all the leading topics of the day; altogether, thirty-six columns of choice reading matter, embracing subjects of interest to the lawyer, the doctor, the merchant, the mechanic, the farmer, and the family. The reputation of the GAZETTE is so thoroughly established, especially in the correctness of its commercial and market reports, that it has gained a circulation

The Largest in Western Pennsylvania.

It is, at the same time, the cheapest in the list of weeklies of its grade. The subscription and club rates are as follows:

TERMS—Single copy, $1.75; clubs of five, $1.50; clubs of ten, $1.40; this includes postage paid by the publishers. A copy of the WEEKLY GAZETTE will be sent free to the party who acts as agent for every ten numbers paid for.

Its especial merits are:

It contains the Latest News from all parts of the World.

Its Market Reports are prepared especially and exclusively for this journal, and are the only reliable ones published in Pittsburgh.

It is especially adapted for the Farmer Mechanic, Merchant and general Family use.

The large circulation of the GAZETTE is attributable to the recognition of its merits, and not to the efforts of canvassers who make a business of securing names on a percentage. Postmasters at many points have acted for us, and these alone are our accredited agents. All desirous of receiving the best Weekly published in Pittsburgh should subscribe at once.

HOME NEWS.

Resulted Fatally.

Thomas Rutherford, one of the men who were seriously injured in the accident on the Connellsville Railroad, near Garrett Station, on Thursday afternoon, mention of which was made in our issue of yesterday, died yesterday morning at the residence of the father in Connellsville. Riddell the other unfortunate, still lies in an unconscious condition, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. Rutherford was formerly a carpenter on the road, while Riddell was employed as boss car watchman at the depot in this city.

Anti-Secret Society Convention.

The National Christian Association will hold its seventh anniversary in Library Hall, Pittsburgh, June 8th to 10th, 1875. Opening address by Rev. B. T. Roberts, Rochester, N. Y., at 8 o'clock P. M., on the 8th prox. The convention will hold day and evening sessions, to which all are invited. The following, among others, have agreed to deliver addresses: Rev. H. H. George, D. D., President of W. Geneva College, O.; President J. Blanchard, of Wheaton College, Ill.; Rev. A. M. Milligan, D. D., Allegheny; Rev Milton Wright, Dayton, Ohio; Rev. Henry Cogswell, Mansfield, Ohio; Rev. W. Post, New York. The business and object of the N. C. A., as defined in its corporate article, is to expose, withstand and remove secret societies, Freemasonry in particular, and all other anti-Christian movements, in order to save the Church of Christ from being depraved, the administration of justice from perversion, and our Republican government from corruption. Expositions of some of the degrees will be given during the Convention by men who have been connected with the Orders, and the public are invited to attend and hear how men are made "Sir Knights" and "Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commanders" in this Christian Republic of America. Respectfully,

J. P. STODDARD,
General Agent N. C. A.

Fayette County's Mineral Resources.

"Observer," writing to us from New Geneva, on the Monongahela river, Fayette county, says that a party of gentlemen recently assembled at the residence of Hon. Alex. Crow, near that place, for the purpose of investigating the mineral resources of the hills of Georges Creek and ascertain the number of veins or strata of iron, &c., in them. The first examination made was on Mr. Crow's land, which borders on the above stream, and it proved in every way successful. The first vein discovered was the twenty inch blue lump iron ore, which lies about five feet below the large vein of coal; this vein is supposed be extensive and rich. The second strata of iron ore lies beneath the twelve feet sand rock and is about twenty-two inches in depth. These veins were trace for three miles to Jacob Crow's, and other veins were discovered at that point, of which one shows about three feet face by its out-croping. The veins of iron ore described are the most important for quantity and quality that have been discovered in this section, but other veins in apparently less quantities and of good quality have been seen and will no doubt, in the future, be noticed. The veins of coal are almost inexhaustible, and have been so far worked as to afford a local supply of fuel; in addition to this are numerous ledges of lime stone, some varieties of which are best suited for burning into lime and others for fluxing iron ore, of which large quantities have been shipped and used in the iron furnaces at Pittsburgh.

TROUBLED BANKERS.

Their Money Safely Locked Up.

At the time of the closing of business in he Third National Bank, Allegheny, on Thursday evening, all the money and valuable papers belonging to the bank were placed in one of the large burglar proof safes in the vault of the bank. On getting ready for business yesterday morning it was found that the combination lock on this one safe had got out of order, and the doors could not be opened. They will probably have to be forced open to-day. The other large safe in the vault contained a number of the unsigned currency notes of the bank, and these were signed and the business of the bank was not interrupted.

FOR CALIFORNIA.

A Summer Trip to the Golden State.

On next Wednesday a little excursion party from this vicinity, will start on a tour to the land of mammoth trees, of luscious fruits, of clear skies, and life giving air, on the Pacific Slope. The company, as at present made up, consists of a party of ten, namely: Mr. Wm. Vankirk, with a sister, and his daughter, Miss Lillie Vankirk; Mr. Dunlap, wife and daughter, Miss Mary Pusey, Mr. Andrew Knox, and Rev. E. B. Snyder, all of Allegheny, and Miss Ida Bradley, of Pittsburgh. Rev. Mr. Snyder goes in advance of the party, to attend the National Temperance Convention, in Chicago, but will join his friends in that city. The excursionists propose to go first to San Francisco, from thence to the Yo Semite, then down to Santa Barbara, in Southern California, after which they will start on the return trip. They expect to be absent for about five weeks. If half the good wishes of their friends are realized, they will return with the most pleasant memories of their journeyings, and with freshened health and vigor.

DISASTROUS RUNAWAY.

A Collision on the Perrysville Road—Buggies Wrecked and Several Parties Injured.

Last evening, between five and six o'clock, a serious runaway occurred on the Perrysville road. Several parties were driving in from the Fairview races, when a horse attached to a buggy occupied by Jacob Swoger and another man became frightened, and ran off. Near Born's hotel the reins broke, and the driver lost all control over the horse. As it neared the toll-gate, three other buggies were abreast in the road, and there was a collision. One of the buggies was occupied by Charles Faulkner and Charles Splane, who were thrown out. Faulkner had a leg broken, and was otherwise injured. Splane was cut on the side of the head, and bled profusely. Swoger was badly bruised about the shoulders. One of the buggies landed a straddle of a heavy piece of wood planted in the road to keep more than one carriage from getting through the gate at once. On this side of the gate two country two horse wagons were going out home and the horses dashed into them, breaking off a wheel and upsetting another wagon. It seems like a miracle that the occupants of the buggies were not killed. Faulkner and Splane were brought to their homes in Allegheny, and received medical attention. The buggies were completely demolished and the horses pretty well used up.

If warm weather ever comes in earnest people will want ice cream with that, they will find that the Cocoanut Drops, Macaroons and Lady Fingers, made by S. S. Marvin & Co., are the best and cheapest they can buy.

Homicide in East Liberty.

A Prisoner Killed by a Policeman.

Fatal Affray Early This Morning in the East End—Michael Carr Shot by Officer Grierson.

There was considerable excitement among police circles this morning at the reception of the intelligence that a man had been shot and killed at East Liberty, about midnight. On learning that a report of this character was in circulation, a representative of this paper repaired to the Mayor's office, where by the use of the police telegraph it was ascertained that a man by the name of Michael Carr had been shot by Officer Grierson, the policeman having arrested Carr for drunkenness. After the shooting, which proved fatal, the officer gave himself up to the authorities to await an investigation into the cause of his action, which we were unable to learn. A message was received at the Mayor's office this morning asking the Coroner to go to East Liberty to hold an inquest upon the remains of the deceased.

Since writing the above it has been learned that Carr was shot for striking the officer with his fist and resisting him in such a manner as to compel him to resort to self defense.

It appears that the officer was conducting his prisoner to the station house and being in an intoxicated state he became very unruly. On being requested to go along quietly and without making any trouble, he began abusing his captor quite severely, which was born with until "endurance ceased to be a virtue," when other means were resorted to, which have already been given. The officer appears quite anxious to have the affair thoroughly investigated and has every confidence that the shooting on his part was wholly justifiable. No doubt the inquest upon the body will develop the circumstances leading to the firing of the fatal shot, and will in all probability determine whether or not there were sufficient grounds to warrant such a step under the circumstances.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

····Councils meet on Monday.

····Ten dozen of small flags were distributed over the front and sides of the Allegheny City building last evening.

····The Dem's will hold their primaries to-day. As there is some feeling on the Gubernatorial question, some warm work is expected around the polls.

····Trouble is anticipated at Irwin Station, and the people are on guard to prevent the town from being burned down. The trouble is on account of the miners' strike.

····The question whether W. C. McCarthy or B W. Morgan would be Mayor for the next three years was decided yesterday in favor of the former. The usual amount of corner slang will now be in order.

····Michael Cady was arrested yesterday evening by Detective Joe Cupples, for stealing a silver watch from Jas. McNeill, a workman at May's dyeing establishment, on Sixth avenue. He will have a hearing this morning.

····Patrolman George F. Alstadt was dismissed from the police force by the Mayor, yesterday, for sleeping while on duty. Officer Hunter is also in suspense as to what will be done with him for alleged use of insulting words to his superior officer.

····Henrich Birchley, aged fifty years, was sun struck in the Seventh ward, Allegheny, yesterday while engaged at work in a lumber yard on River avenue. He was take to his home, on the corner of Chestnut and Ohio streets, where he died in less than an hour.

····There was a great battle between bees at Mansfield the other day. A camp of Italian bees owned by Mr. Bell, finding honey scarce, made an attack on the hives of American bees, owned by Mr. Lippincott. A fierce battle ensued, and was kept up for two days. The loss is estimated at from $4,000 to $5,000. The Americans finally scattered their assailants.

····The Finance Committee held a brief meeting yesterday afternoon, in the Controller's office, but only transacted a lot of uninteresting routine business. A resolution exempting the Home for the Friendless from paying their assessment on the Try street sewer was laid over. A number of bills were ordered to be paid, and several applications for exonerations from payment of taxes acted upon.

····The efficiency of Mayor McCarthy's administration of the police force of the city is evidenced by the lack of thefts and pocket-picking during this week of parade, excitement, and plenty of strangers. Burglaries are getting very scarce now. A delegation of representatives of the light-fingered profession arrived in Pittsburgh a few days ago, but they were promptly chased out again, and before they had time to operate any.

····The Gas committee of Councils held a regular meeting yesterday. All the petitions for gas lamps referred to the committee by Councils, were laid over, and a motion was passed recommending to Councils the passage of a resolution directing the Gas committee to order no lamps to be erected until the gas companies make a reduction in their price for lamps and posts. The companies charge $50 for each lamp and post. The committee thinks that is too much.

····Benjamin W. Morgan yesterday honored Mayor McCarthy with a call and expressed his objection to the removal of his friend, A. B. McVay, from the occupancy of the high chair behind the desk in the Central Police station. The Chief Magistrate informed his uninvited caller that Mr. McVay had been displaced for violation of the rules regulating the police force, and although he had been appointed at the request of Benjamin, that gentleman's influence could not keep him on the force after he had failed to strictly observe the rules. There was some loud talk on B. W.'s part, but Mr. McCarthy very clearly expressed a determination to act as Mayor, irrespective of the Red Planet's dictation, and so the pleasant colloquy terminated,—the visitor retiring with a lively insect making music in his hearing apparatus.

PERSONAL.

Mr. David Dunseath, Sr., took leave of Pittsburgh yesterday for New York, from whence he sails to-day for Europe, to be absent for three or four months. His many relatives and friends wish him a pleasant voyage and safe return.

TO-DAY'S DECORATION EXERCISES.

The Programme to be Observed in Honoring the Soldier Dead, and Strewing Flowers Upon Their Graves.

This is Decoration Day, and the arrangements for the proper observance of it in all sections of this city and Allegheny have been about completed. The programme for Pittsburgh is as follows: At noon to-day he members of General Hays' Post No. 3, will meet at their hall on Fourth avenue, and from there proceed to Allegheny Cemetery. All soldiers who desire to participate in the ceremonies are invited to come to the hall and join in the march. In East Liberty the members of Post 117 will meet in Bown's building, on Penn avenue, at half-past eleven o'clock, and after decorating the graves in their own district will form a junction at General Hays' monument, in Allegheny Cemetery, with Post 3, where the following order of exercises will be observed: 1. Address by the Commander, Comrade R. C. Haslett. 2. Dirge—Cathedral Band. 3. Memorial Hymn, led by Prof. G. M. Alexander, Prof. Horne, Dr. J. Guy McCandless, Mr. George Petty, Prof. S. Bissell, Organist. 4. Prayer by Chaplain—Rev. B. F. Brooke, D. D. 5. Ode—"Cover them over with Flowers"—By Quartette. 6. Formal placing of flowers on graves—Comrades Chalmers, Baldwin, O'Brien and Chaplain Hartzell. 7. Ode—"They are gone down the Valley"—By Quartette. 8. Dirge—Cathedral Band. 9. Ode—"Tenting To-night" (by request),—By Quartette. 10. Oration—Col. Richard Realf. 11. Doxology (Long Meter)—In which all are requested to join. Benediction.

In Allegheny, the decoration services will be under the direction of Post 88, and will be participated in by the Veteran Association, Company B, Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, Knapp's Battery, the City Councils, and the pupils of the public schools. At 7:30 o'clock this morning, the children will assemble at their respective school houses, and march to the West Park, where the decorating committee will take charge of the decorations which the scholars have made, after which the latter will be permitted to follow the bent of their inclinations. The following exercises will take place at Monument Hill: Reading orders, National and Department Headquarters, by the Post Adjutant. Grand Army hymn by the assemblage. Prayer, Rev. I. N. Baird. Hymn by the choir. Ode—"Cover Them Over with Flowers," by the choir. Oration by Captain J. C. Arms. Song by school children (led by Professor McCabe.) Poem by Horace B. Durant, Esq. Song by the choir. Decoration of Monument, by Comrades Graham, Stevenson, Wood and Christy. Benediction by J. S. Hudson. At the conclusion of the above programme Post 88 will go to Uniondale and Nunnery Hill Cemeteries and decorate the graves therein. The graves in Spring Hill and Troy Hill Cemeteries will be decorated by Company B, Ninth Reserves, and guests. To-morrow, at a quarter of ten o'clock, the members of Post 88 will meet at their headquarters, and proceed to the South Common M. E. Church, where Rev. I. N. Baird is to deliver a memorial sermon.

On the South Side the comrades of Post 151 will meet this morning at half-past seven o'clock, at their hall, corner of Fourteenth and Carson streets, and at eight o'clock will form in order on Seventeenth street, right resting on Sarah street. The procession, headed by the Highland drum corps, will march up Sarah street to Twentieth, down Twentieth to Carson, down Carson to Twelfth, and thence to cemeteries. All soldiers, sailors, societies and citizens are cordially invited to participate in the ceremonies, and the ministers of the South Side are earnestly requested to deliver memorial sermons to-morrow. The orators of the day will be Revs. Hollingshead, Humpheys and Kirk.

During the day a special committee from the Hays Post—consisting of Geo. B. Chalmers, John F. Hunter and John Born, will proceed to the Troy Hill cemetery, to decorate the grave of Captain Louis Hager, who was an active member of the Post during life.

THAT man who resolves that he has given his last dollar, or last service to the Church, ought to be very near heaven, before he comes to such determination. As long as we need to receive God's blessings, we ought not to refuse to hear His calls for aid. —Reformed Era.

THE Rev. Dr. B. F. Brooke, of Christ church, will preach a memorial sermon on Sunday, in accordance with a request of Grand Army of the Republic. Hays Post No. 3 will assemble at Municipal Hall at 10¼ A. M., Sunday, and proceed to Christ church in a body.

THERE has of late been more than usual interest in the Fourth Presbyterian church, this city, Rev. R. R. Moore, pastor. As a part of the result, twelve persons have been added to the church on profession of their faith in Christ; all, with one exception, from the Sabbath School.

THERE will be no morning or afternoon services in the Fifth United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, the pastor, being absent from the city. Rev. W. G. Moorhead, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church is expected to preach in the evening.

THE semi-centennial anniversary of the Sabbath School of the Upper Ten-mile church, Presbytery of Washington, will be celebrated to-day. The exercises will consist of reports, historical sketch, addresses, &c. After dinner, there will be discussions on important Sabbath school topics.

THE committee appointed by the National Temperance Society to arrange for a National Ministerial Convention, recommends that such a conference be held in Philadelphia, in June, 1876. A committee of fifteen has been appointed to make necessary arrangements for such a meeting.

REV. E. B. SNYDER will preach in the North avenue M. E. church to-morrow morning on "Good News from a Far Country," and in the evening on "God's thoughts and Man's contrasted." The Rev. gentleman starts on Monday for a trip California wards, and expects to be gone about five weeks.

REV. R. W. PEARSON, D D, will preach in the Fourth Avenue Baptist church to-morrow, morning and evening. Evening subject: "Lights and shadows in Pittsburgh during the past week." The evening services during the hot weather will commence at ¼ to 8 o'clock and be limited to an hour. Hymn papers will be provided for all who attend.

BISHOP SIMPSON was present at the Philadelphia Preachers' Meeting, May 10th, when the presiding elder question was discussed. He stated that while there should be the greatest latitude in the discussion of questions of church polity, he cautioned the brethren against the use of personalities, which are mischievous at all times in their effects.

THE Relief Society of the East End, organized in the Emory M. E. church about the middle of February, closed its labors April 28th. It was instrumental in the relief of great numbers who came to the church three times a week. The ladies report more than sixty families as relieved by them, many of which received aid two or three times a week.

THE Emory Monthly, is a new church paper edited by the Rev. S. M. Vernon of the Emory M. E. church, East End, and published by W. L. B. Jack. It is devoted to the interests of the Emory church in particular, and to church work in general. It is filled with choice reading, items of church news, and crisp editorial notes, that will make it a pleasant visitor to the homes of the people.

THE M. E. church at Leetonia, which for several weeks has been closed, undergoing repairs, will be formally re-opened for divine services, Sunday, May 30th, at 10½ o'clock A. M. The services will be under the direction of Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., President of the Pittsburgh Female College, assisted by Dr. Hill, of Cleveland. It is probable that Chaplain McCabe will also be present.

FRIDAY, May 14th, at St. Michael's Seminary, in this city, the Right Rev. M. Domenec promoted Mr. Francis Hayden to the sub-Deaconate. On Saturday he ordained the same gentleman together with Revs. James Tobin and Thomas Howley, Deacons, and on Monday raised the first named two to the dignity of the Priesthood. Father Hayden's future mission will be in the Diocese of Kansas.

THE gospel teaches liberty and the rights of man, and as it is propogated these blessings must gain ground even though those who preach the gospel may cling, though strange weakness and mistake, to the superstition of slavery. Some day the men will be over-ridden and the gospel be made to triumph, for hope and strength are not in the human instruments but in the eternal truth of God.—United Presbyterian.

CLERGYMEN should not send church notices to newspaper offices written on the back of their liquor bills. One was received the other day on which was written: "Rev. Dr. ——— To —— & Co., Dr. May 10—To one bottle Bourbon whisky—$1.00—settled." A friend at our elbow suggests that, judging from the price, it must have been either a very small bottle, very poor whisky, or some of that Chicago "crooked."

IT does not become the body to encroach on the realm sacred to the sovereignty of the soul, or to make the law of the mind captive to the law of the members. Carry the idea further in its logical course, and the exact positions that Church and State should hold reveal themselves to our intelligence. Each has its place, and each has its appointed duties to perform, with the spiritual order however, paramount.—Pittsburgh Catholic.

FAR WISER and more charitable would it be for that paper (The Lutheran and Missionary) if, owing to its peculiar ecclesiastical casings, it cannot approve directly what such men as Moody, Sankey, Varley, Pearsall Smith and others are accomplishing, to say with Gamaliel: "Refrain from these men, and let them alone; for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought; but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found to fight even against God." — Presbyterian Banner.

THE ladies of the First Presbyterian Church in Meadville have adopted a novel plan to secure funds with which to furnish the carpets, &c., for their new church. They have compiled and had printed a new cook book, complete in every department, with the additional recommendation that all the receipts given are furnished by ladies of Meadville and neighboring cities, who vouch for them as having stood the test of actual trial. The book is well printed and substantially bound, and is sold at $1.75 per copy.

THE Presbyterian Banner remarks: "We are happy to learn that the health of Rev. Dr. A. D. Clark, of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Allegheny, is restored, and that, contrary to what has been heretofore reported, there is no thought on his own part or that of his friends of his retiring from his post in the Seminary. It would be difficult to find one who would fill it more ably. The movement on behalf of Dr. Young is with the design to secure this eminent scholar and experienced instructor for the vacant Professorship of Pastoral Theology at the same Seminary."

THE new Baptist Church at Leechburg, Pa., was formally recognized last week. Rev. J. D. Herr, of the Penn avenue Baptist Church, preached the sermon, Rev. B. F. Woodburn, of Allegheny, delivered the charge to the church, Dr. Shadrach, of Indiana, delivered the charge to the pastor, and Rev. J. S. Hutson, also of Allegheny city, extended the right hand of fellowship. The church is a very fine one, and the congregation bids fair to become quite flourishing. Messrs. Rogers & Burchfield, the iron works proprieters, are assisting, quite liberally, pecuniarily, to establish this new church.

FRIENDS of the Saviour, do your part in bringing those whom neurosis or ill-directed education have driven from social communion and the healthful influences of Christianity, under better auspices. Seek out the skeptic and show what a simple thing is faith, and what a dear thing is love. Go to the desolate and supply their lack of light from your own sunshine. God will be with you if you go with a prayer in your heart. Every believer should be a light in the world; enlightening the dark souls far around him. Draw from the eternal Light, and save the benighted souls about you!—Methodist Recorder.

THE Fifth U. P. church, under the pastoral care of Rev. J. M. Johnston, held their communion last Sabbath when they had an addition of thirty-one to their membership, thirteen on profession and eighteen by certificate. The congregation seems to be in a fair way to prosperity; peace and good fellowship prevails among them, and the attendance on the ordinances is good, and the pastor's labors highly appreciated. There seems to be a wide field of usefulness open to both pastor and people. Let them improve the opportunity. It is now only six months since their present pastor was installed over them, and in that time they have had an increase of eighty-three to their membership. Surely, if such things are indications of prosperity, they ought to take courage and go forward with renewed vigor. Services next Sabbath at the usual hours, 10½ and 3 P. M.

THE Committee on division of Pittsburgh M. E. Conference met May 18. In view of the action of the Conference looking to a division at the next General Conference the following suggestions were agreed upon, viz.: 1. That the Conference be divided according to the line between Pennsylvania and Ohio. 2. That the part lying within Ohio, be called the East Ohio Conference, and that within Pennsylvania retain the name of Pittsburgh Conference. 3. That the claimants on the necessitous fund be assigned relations according to the boundaries of the two Conferences within which they live; except those living outside, who shall have the privilege of choosing to which one they wish to hold their connection. 4. That the funds in the hands of the Centenary Board be distributed between the two Conferences according to ministerial membership. A sub-committee was appointed to consider matters connected with the educational centenary fund.

MUNICIPAL HEALTH MATTERS.

Business Transacted Last Night by the Board of Health—The Vacant Inspectorship Filled.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held last night in Municipal Hall. The members present were Messrs. Slagle, Graham, Arthurs, Thomas, McCann and Fleming. The Hospital Committee reported that Mr. McKain, the contractor for the dwelling attached to the pest house, had completed his work in accordance with the contract, and that they had taken the building off his hands. The report was approved and a warrant was ordered to be drawn for the amount due Mr. McKain, $1,517.15, which also includes extras ordered by the Board. Warrants were also ordered to be drawn in favor of John M. Patterson for $350 for erecting two heaters in the Thirteenth ward hospital, and for $381 in favor of the Herald Printing Co. for printing one thousand copies of the annual report of the Board. Proposals to furnish four iron tanks for use at the hospital were received as follows. N. Snyder & Co., $80 each. Brenneman & Mard $47, 68 each. D. W. C. Carroll & Co., $57 each. Robert Monroe $60 each. The contract was awarded to Brenneman & Ward. A petition from Johnson & Hobson, of Allegheny, for permission to go into the cesspool cleaning business in Pittsburgh was referred to the Sanitary committee. Dr. Arthurs, Treasurer of the Board was directed to make a requisition on the City Controller for $3,000. Mr. Slagle, from the special committee appointed to confer with the Guardians of the Poor in regard to the interment of persons dying from infectious diseases, for the payment of bedding and clothing destroyed, and concerning the furnishing of medicines to persons suffering from infectious diseases, reported that the Guardians had refused to defray the expenses in any such cases and only admitted their liability for assistance to the families of afflicted persons. The report was received and the Committee discharged. Health officer Gray reported the death of Inspector Louis Walther and paid a compliment to his ability and efficiency while an employee of the Board. Mr. Slagle offered the following which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we have learned with sincere regret of the death of Louis Walther, an officer of this Board, who for four years faithfully discharged the duties of his office and earned the respect of all with whom he had been associated.

On motion of Dr. Thomas the Board decided to go into an election to fill the vacancy and applications from the following persons were read: John C. White, Chas. Welfal, R. Graham, Louis Peterson, C. S. Black, R. D. King, Conrad Shipp, John S. Lawson, C. S. Morrow, S. B. Wachter, F. W. Niemann, James M. Todd, Gotlieb Gross, P. C. Morgan, F. M. Alton, L. E. Backofen, Abraham Day, John Hoffer, W. S Smith, H. Chadwick and Peter Price. Among the numerous recommendations submitted by candidates was one from a Deputy Mayor in the city speaking of the applicant as a gentleman well qualified to fill the place of "Louis Walther, diseased." After a number of ballots had been taken Peter Price was declared elected and the Board adjourned.

What the Knights Took Away.

Of course they did not steal, for they are all honorable men; but they were not long in our city before they made a discovery—a discovery, too, that many of our own citizens have often made to their benefit and profit—consisting in the fact that the Boston One-Price Clothing House, No. 95 Smithfield street, can sell a finer and more fashionable suit of clothes, for less money, than any other house in the State of Allegheny. The Sir Knights took advantage of this fact, and bought themselves rich at the Boston, and left our city thanking their stars that the annual Conclave had brought them to Pittsburgh. Others can do likewise, as the Boston is a one-price house—the lowest price—and will not discriminate against those to the manor born. Every man, youth, and boy can afford to be well dressed, as long as the Boston continues to sell at such remarkably low figures.

Checks, Diagonals and Worsteds.

The above goods to suit all classes and ages—the gay, the grave, and the lively—with new styles in colorings, and in great variety, at the fashionable and popular merchant tailoring establishment of T. Scandrett & Co., No. 255 Liberty street, where the art of cutting and fitting is reduced to a system, and where study and skill combine to turn out suits perfect in fit, durable in make, and comfortable in the wear. The house of Scandrett & Co. may have its equal, but surely no superior, in fine and fashionable suitings, and in good fitting clothes.

FOUND DEAD.

Two Policemen Discover a Corpse on Penn Avenue.

John Conner was found dead about half past one o'clock this morning, lying on the sidewalk on Penn avenue, not far from his home, which is at No. 279 on the same street. He was discovered by two officers, who at first glance thought him only intoxicated, but upon lifting him from the pavement they found that life was extinct. The cause of his death is not yet known but will doubtless be ascertained by a Corner's inquest to-day. He had been drinking, and some of the neighbors say they saw him taking deep draughts from a bottle last evening, but what it contained they did not know. His body was taken to the Central Police Station.

A Lady's Charms

Are greatly enhanced by neatness of dress, and especially by the neatness of the shoe she wears. Many a lady has lost the chance of a good husband and the consequent joys of a lifetime by wearing an awkward, slovenly and ill-fitting shoe. To guard against such a misfortune every lady should purchase her shoes from R. Taggart, No. 129 Federal street, as he has ladies shoes manufactured on so many different widths of last that the most clumsy foot may be made to appear good looking. But this is not all, for the whole foot is fitted and not a part, which gives the utmost comfort and ease in the wear. Are they cheap? Will it pay to buy from him? It will not pay to buy at any other house while he continues in business, as he can undersell any other house in the city, and he does it.

What We Labor For.

Some men work for mere profit, not having any scruples of conscience as to how comes the profit, while others believe that money is not all of life; of which class is Wm. Martin, No. 108 Federal street, Allegheny, who believing that a good name is rather to be chosen, &c., manufactures and keeps on hand a class of goods that for general excellence is not surpassed. While one dealer may tell you that he sells cheaper than another, Martin will tell you that no one can possibly afford a better quality of boot or shoe for the same money. Get a pair of Martin's make and you will never again in all your life wear another pair of Eastern or prison manufacture.

Flowers for Decoration.

Persons desiring to donate flowers for decoration should send them to head quarters of Post No. 88 on Saturday morning before 8 o'clock. The members of the G. A. R. desire a liberal contribution of flowers, as the expense of purchasing a supply would be too great for them. Parties will be at the post room, corner of Ohio street and East Diamond, as early as 9 o'clock A. M. on Saturday to receive flowers.

J. H. STEVENSON,
Adjutant.

It Pays.

The propriety of reducing the price of goods, so as to harmonize with the depression of business and values, has been demonstrated at the Boston One Price Clothing House, No. 95 Smithfield street, in the immense sales which are being made. This house has a splendid stock of ready-made goods for spring and summer wear, which have been marked down to bottom prices. Excellence, cheapness and satisfaction guaranteed. Go and see what good things can come out of Boston.

Have You a Decoration Suit?

If you have not already done so you should lose no time in calling on Mr. Jas. Bleakly, Merchant Tailor, No. 60 Smithfield street, and order a suit from a great variety of Summer Cloths, pleasing to the eye and durable in texture. Bleakley's establishment ranks A No. 1 in late styles, good material and elegant fits. Prices very moderate, as low as the quality of the goods will admit. Be sure to have one of his genteel suits before next holiday.

Passengers to Europe

will consult their interest by applying to Max Schamberg, 163 Smithfield street, where plans of steamers, sailing day lists and all information are readily furnished. Exchange on Europe in sums to suit purchaser and at lowest rate.

Some of Its Merits.

Artificial Stone can be laid in pavement with a perfectly smoothe and uniform surface, while no other substance is half so durable. Call at the office of Herman Straub, 71 Federal street, and learn further as to its advantages.

Lawn Vases.

Good and cheap,
N. U. WALKER & CO.,
372 Penn avenue.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure a Cough in one-half the time necessary to cure it with any other medicine, and it does it, not by drying it up, but by removing the cause—subduing the irritation and healing the affected parts. For all cases of Laryngitis, Hoarseness, Suppression or Loss of Voice, Bronchitis, Severe Chronic or Lingering Coughs, it will be found to surpass any medicine that has ever before been offered to the public. It is sold by all dealers in medicine.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Gounod Club.

The repetition last night of the opera of the "Rose of Castile" was witnessed by an audience which, if not quite as large as Wednesday evening's, was fully its peer in point of intelligence and fashion. The members of the Gounod Club should, and doubtless do feel proud of the high position then have won and worthily occupy in the estimation of the music-loving portion of the community. Of the various performers in "The Rose of Castile" we spoke on Thursday morning and have nothing to add now except that last night's rendition was characterized by additional smoothness and grace, though in the latter respect some of the male singers have yet more to learn.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

A special performance will be given at the Opera House this evening, the dramatic feature of which will be the "Waifs of New York," with Miss Kate Raymond as Willie, the Waif, assisted by Messrs. Collins, Price and Delmar. The vaudeville part of the entertainment will consist of serio-comic songs by Lou Sanford, Fanny Davenport and La Pauline, assisted by Dan. Nash, Geo. S. Knight, Benedict and Ferguson, and others.

Trimble's Varieties.

The two regular performances will be given at this theater this afternoon and evening, and they will comprise the same bill and performers announced above for the Opera House. In the evening the programme is the same for both theaters, and while one part of it is being rendered at Trimble's the other part will be played at the Opera House. The performers will then exchange places and the entertainment be made complete at both places.

Professor Fowler.

Professor Fowler will positively leave the city on Tuesday morning, so that those who desire the benefit of a consultation with him should take advantage of this last opportunity.

Flowers, Lawn Vases and Rustic Work

If you wish to beautify your garden call at E. H. Bochmann's, 132 Smithfield street, for roses, hardy, monthly, moss and climbers.

Bedding plants of all descriptions, ornamental vines and creepers.

Lawn vases and rustic work with plants to fill them handsomely.

Do not forget the place, E. H. Bochmann's, 132 Smithfield street.

Idlewood Cottages.

This charming rural retreat, only six miles from the city, will open for the season on June 1st. Parties desiring to engage rooms on cottages will apply at 102 Wood street, or at Idlewood.

The Folly of Neglect.

It is the heighth of folly to neglect precautionary measures for the preservation of health, when they become necessary in consequence of hurtful influences. Among these influences are the unavoidable inhalation of malarious or fetid air, exposure in bad weather, unhealthy occupations and habitual late hours, all of which tend to produce disease. To guard against their effects a vigorous and regular discharge of the bodily functions should be kept up. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the tonic, of all others, best calculated to perpetuate bodily vigor and regularity. The experience of denizens of unhealthy localities, out-door laborers, employes in manufactories, and late workers of all kinds, has shown that a wineglassful of this pleasant safeguard taken at regular intervals imparts an amount of stamina and power of resistance to disease afforded by no other protective and remedial agent. The nervous, the weak and the dyspeptic, derive incalculable benefit from its use, and pronounce it the best preparation of its class.

Judgment of the Public!

During the past five years the public have carefully observed the wonderful cures accomplished from the use of VEGETINE. From its use many an afflicted sufferer has been restored to perfect health after having expended a small fortune in procuring medical advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medicines.

It is now justly remarked by all classes of people that VEGETINE holds a higher position in the estimation of the public than any other medical compound, and it has won its great reputation and immense demand from actual merit.

Its medical properties are Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic. There is no disease of the human system for which the VEGETINE cannot be used with perfect safety, as it does not contain any metallic or poisonous compound. It is composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs; it is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It is safe and reliable, as the following evidence will show:

Valuable Evidence.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, D. D., formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years' experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounces it invaluable:

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 164 TRANSIT STREET.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.:

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

O. T. WALKER,
Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, pastor of the M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also, those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, and there is no doubt about the curative powers of VEGETINE.

NATICK, MASS., January 1, 1873.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your VEGETINE a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age; for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying, two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, VEGETINE, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over thirty years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breathe any more, and VEGETINE has cured me; and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak, sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was.

PIC-NIC GROVE,
AT HULTON STATION, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad. This Grove is beautifully situated one square from Hulton Station, having a front of 600 feet on the Railroad. It is a cool and secluded place, thickly covered with shade trees. One of the largest platforms for dancing in the country, and other necessary buildings. Good cool water. Over ten miles from the city, a sufficient distance to avoid the annoyance of city roughs, who frequently disturb Pic-Nic parties near the city. Excursion trains stop in front of the Grove. H. K. Smith, Esq., one of the best caterers has built a beautiful mansion in the rear of the Grove, and is prepared at all times to furnish parties with the best of dinners at reasonable terms. The Grove will be rented to lodges, literary societies, military organizations, socials, clubs, churches, Sunday schools, &c. Strangers renting will be required to furnish references. The A. V. R. R. has a double track to Hulton and runs ten daily trains, under careful management, all stopping at the Grove. Inquire

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY,
WASHINGTON, March 18, 1875.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that The Third National Bank of Allegheny, in the City of Allegheny, in the county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the act of Congress entitled "An act to provide a National Currency secured by a pledge of United State bonds and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking under said act.

Now, therefore, I, Jno. Jay Knox, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The Third National Bank of Allegheny, in the City of Allegheny, in the county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the act aforesaid.
